REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION DEDICATE TO BUILDING A NEW MAN, A NEW WOMAN
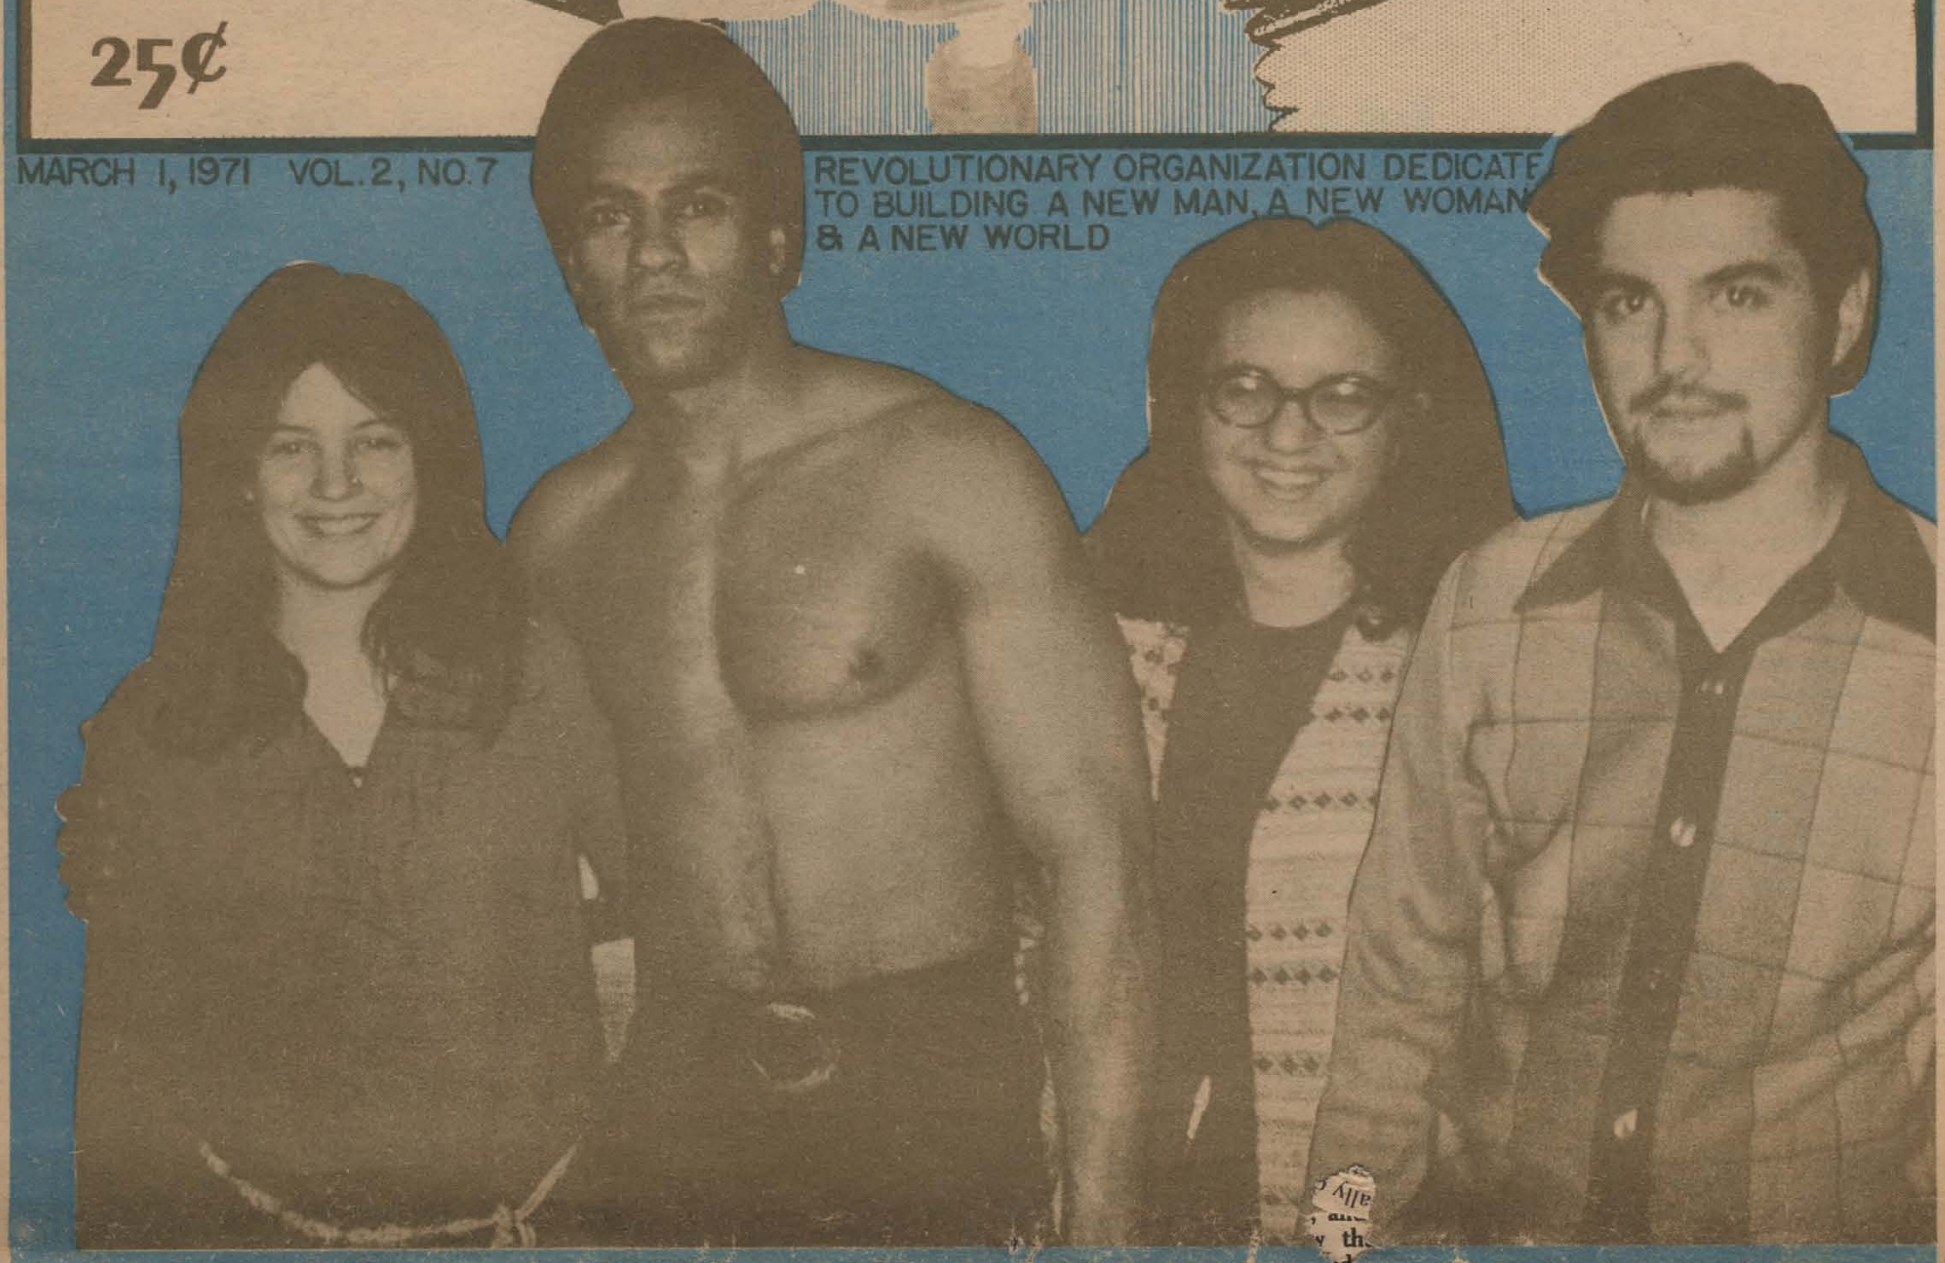
& A NEW WORLD



In the spirit of revolutionary love and respect, Rising Up Angry met with Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense of the Black Panther Party. Our Struggle is One!
Our Victory is All Power to the People!!!

R.U.A. With Huey P. Newton

Minister Defense B.P.P.

A couple of weeks ago, 6 brothers and sisters from Rising Up Angry had the beautiful experience of meeting the supreme servant of the people, Huey P. Newton. This brother is fantastic. We still can't get over the revolutionary spirit he generates. He's so relaxed and honest, it's hard to believe that anyone could be so consious. When we started the conversation with Huey, we didn't know exactly what to say. So, of course Huey started to rap. (I couldn't say it was a meeting, because it was more like being with my partners on the street.) I felt as if I had known him for years. We brought some copies of Angry with us and Huey picked one up. First thing he said was he liked our layout. That made us feel confident so we started rapping. A sister was asked if she would like some wine. So she went downstairs to the kitchen (I presume) and brought up some wine. The sister from Angry asked Huey if he'd like some wine and he said no, would she like some gin? Everything was gonna be alright!

For us in Angry, this was a very important meeting. Not only because of our complete respect for Huey, but also because it was a coming together of revolutionaries. There are no blueprints or diagrams for making revolution in America - only thru fighting, building, failing, learning, and asking questions will we know the way. And that was what the meeting with Huey was about - revolutionaries exchanging ideas about how to better serve the people and advance militarily.

After telling Huey about the development of Angry (from a newspaper to an organization) we asked him what he thought about our programs. (Free legal, bussing to prisons, women's program,etc.) He said he re[illegible]ug them on two levels - one because they were directed at the people on the streets, the lumpen, and also because they were about meeting the wants of the people, which is basically what a socialist revolution is about. One thing that Huey made clear about the importance of the lumpen (the people on the streets) is that they will soon represent the majority of the American people. In the Black communities, this is already true. Unemployment has skyrocketed and the services in the Black community are on the decline. More and more black people have no place to go but the streets - even their basic human needs such as hunger and health, are neglected. In many white and mixed communities, this is also becoming the case. One out of every 8 people in Los Angeles is on welfare, people waiting in unemployment compensation lines talk about this being a depression, in New York City 6,000 public school teachers were laid off. Empty classrooms - because there is no money. And the war in Cambodia, Laos and Viet Nam, goes on. As Huey pointed out - these problems are still minor compared to what's to come. It's the crumbling of the empire at the cost of the people. Even todays stable white worker is tomorrows welfare recipient. What Huey pointed out is that it is the task of revolutionaries to build an alternative to this dying capitalist system. To show the people that even when times are rough - revolutionaries are about meeting the people's needs - building clinics with good doctors who are free, breakfast programs for hungry kids are examples. And that's why Huey felt that Rising Up Angry's programs were moving in the right direction. Because RUA programs are about the people - their needs and their wants. And that is what revolution is about.

At that point, we started to rap about what it would be like after the revolution. And Huey said a beautiful thing. He said that for him, every woman and man was a potential god. A god in the sense that no[illegible] would be holding him/her back - creative energy would be released for the betterment of the people. But [illegible] clear that this would not happen overnight. For change is part of a process - and the beginning starts with man's basic needs. Once the society has met these needs, then man will develop to a higher level - instead of worrying about rent we will deal with cancer research or the restoration of the cities and the seas and the air. So part of what the revolution is about, is taking the mans' technology and using it for the people. Use the machines instead of human labor. Free the People!

The question that all of us had is how best to raise people's consciousness to accept these new ideas and act on them. We talked about how showing by example is better than lecturing or preaching to people. Like in Cuba - when Fidel thought it was better and more efficient to nationalize the farms (so that the farmers could pool their funds, equipment and resources) a lot of the Cubans didn't dig it at first. So instead of forcing them (even though he knew collectivezation was better) he let them go ahead with their private plots. At the same time, he set up state farms on unoccupied land. When the harvest was in and the Cuban people saw that the state farms (with more equipment and man power) could reap a better harvest, they dug the idea. And Fidel welcomed them to join. Huey said that that was the way to move here too. We will teach the people about revolution by doing it. In other words, we must deal with our racism, our sexist attitudes, our individualism and we must build our programs to meet the peoples needs.

Huey also said that by revolutionary example, by attacking the enemy and using armed self-defense, we will show the people that the spirit of the people is greater than the man's technology. An armed people with revolutionary direction - is far more powerful than all the pigs in Babylon put together. We then asked how much he thought armed struggle should be stressed. He said it was very important to emphasize it and that it's wrong for revolutionaries to apologize for guns. He pointed out that the most alienated brothers and sisters in the community (those who have the least to lose) relate very quickly to guns and offing pigs and it's very important to involve these people in the struggle. In other words, you don't cover up the necessity for military traininginbecause obviously without it how are we going to bring down the most armed and barbaric government the world has ever known? But, at the same time - the focus should be serving the people - building programs around people's needs.

Finally, we asked Huey about the Black Panther Party's relation to whites. Huey's reply was that there will be no color distinctions or sexual distinctions in the people's liberation army. Only sisters and brothers dedicated to the bone. As the conversation went on - Huey often referred to dedication. He kept stressing over and over, that revolutionaries - especially those in vanquard parties, must be totally and completely committed to the people and their freedom. There is never a minute to yourself - a revolutionary is a 24 hour servant of the people.

There were many more things discussed, but one article is not room enough for everything. But, in a way it's not the words that count - for as Huey Newton said 'The revolution is not built on slogans and speeches and flowery words. I'm a man of action.' It is on the basis of these actions that we see the Black Panther Party as the vanguard of the revolution and Huey Newton as the Supreme Commander.

IRISH

Irish brothers and sisters throwing firebombs.

BLAST PIGS

After more tnan a year of rioting between catholics and protestants in Ireland, all the Irish people have upped the level of struggle - against the British. A year ago, it used to be that the British used rubber bullets, but that's not happening anymore because the Ulster revolutionaries are having shoot outs with the occupying British infantry. In the first week of February, 4 civilians were killed, plus many injured. In retaliation, a British soldier was machine gunned to death.

Already, in some parts of Belfast and Londonbury, they've got somewhat liberated zones. The British call these - no zones, because most of the people in the neighborhoods support the revolution and if the British were to come in there would be a lot of bloodshed.

In some parts of Belfast, there are fences of corrogated steel and barbed wire, used to separate the protestant's homes from the catholic ghetto s. In the summer of 1969, the people of Belfast and Londonbury had to defend themselves from the police and the B specials. (The B specials are protestant right-wingers). These battles made headlines around the world. So, now, all of the American newsmen have been sent to Ireland to see what's going on. As usual, the news media has lied to the people. They say that the fighting is caused by religious bigots who refurse to join the 20th century. But this is not true. Although there is some fighting and resentment from both catholics and protestants for each other, when the British come, it's everyone against them. The protestants are better off in Ulster than the catholics and some catholics think that the protestants are responsible for their being poor, but most understand.

The British government is the main oppressor of the people of Northern Ireland, along with the Japanese, Germans and Americans. The British, who control all of Northern Ireland's industry, are afraid of the left-wing ideology of the IRA, the People's Democracy and other revolutionary organizations, because they know that they would put the power with the people. So, the British government has militarily occupied Northern Ireland using the excuse that they're afraid of protestant and catholic riots.

The protestants are exploited by the English too, but they're afraid of the catholics and all their lives have been taught to hate them, the same as whites are taught to fear and hate blacks. After the civil rights movement began to catch on in 1969, a right-wing protestant minister began to give anti-catholic speeches all over (much the same as father Lawlor). This soon turned into physical assaults on catholics.

In the early 1960's, there wasn't a lot of protestant catholic fighting. Both groups even started to move into each others neighborhoods, but as soon as the British and other right-wingers started preaching how protestants should hate catholics, things changed and fighting broke out. This happened at the beginning of 1969, now, 2 years later, there's still a lot of fighting between both groups, but they're starting to get together again despite the fact that the government wants them divided.

The revolutionaries understand that it's a class war and not a religious war and how the government maintains it's power by setting group against group. They're trying to educate the people to this. One British pig said,'The protestants and catholics will be going at it real hard. About then the soldiers arrive and suddenly they'll stop fighting each other and start on us.' He also said that since the British arrived, stones and bottles have been replaced by plastic explosives and machine guns. The British Military are ambushed regularly by the people.

Even though the fascist, imperialist British forces are ever present all over Northern Ireland, the spirit of the people is even greater. The pigs will burn a village down and the people will build it better than ever - only this time barracades will be added with brothers and sisters behind them with machine guns. And although the British pigs may run some of the streets in the daytime, the people run all of the roof tops all the time - sniper power.

To our Irish brothers and sisters we say - right on! All power to the people and death to the fascist, imperialist forces all over the world!

Irish kids hassel British pigs.

On March 8th, Intercommunal Women's Day, the sisters of Rising Up Angry dedicate our sister love and strength to Erika Huggins, Deputy Chairman, Connecticut branch, Black Panther Party. Sister Erika, co-defendent with Bobby Seale, is facing a possible death sentence. Actually her only guilt is that of being a revolutionary who chose to Seize the Time for the people's freedom. She and Bobby must be set free. The following are Erika's poems which were written in jail.

for paula:
and was eventually caught)

hopes that render me speechless
fly through my soul
the reality of now is

TAXI ~ KICKIN OUT SOME HEAVY JAMS

At the last Rising Up Angry Benefit, a group known as TAXI kicked out some heavy jams. Their music is a combination of rock and blues - playing some lowdown blues on one side and then turning it around by playing some pulsating rock. TAXI is a neighborhood band. Every member comes from the same hood (PBC). The members are: Paul, lead guitar and vocals; Rick doing vocals; Butch, guitar and vocals; Hector, organ; Pipe, bass; and Frank on drums. Six in all.

Angry interviewed TAXI and it went like this:

ANGRY: How did Taxi come together?

TAXI: Well, it started back about 3 or 3½ years ago. It was sort of a slow process, in a way, with Paul, Frank and Butch first getting it together. We all played before in different groups. We added Pipe and Hector a little later. You know, about a week after we formed we played for a church dance. It was our first gig and it sounded great. We all dug what we heard, so we decided to stay together. We all had the same feeling for music and for each other.

ANGRY: Have the same people remained in the band from the beginning?

TAXI: Yes, except we did have one more guitar. Joe played with us for about a year and a half.

ANGRY: What happened to him?

TAXI: He left to go back to Tennessee. We used to call him hillbilly Joe. He's still with us in a way though, because we all learned a lot from him. We still play a few songs that he wrote and we all learned how to play together as a group, not individually.

ANGRY: Is that still a problem?

TAXI: Sometimes we all get into that bullshit. Like Pipe starting to think just about playing bass for himself and not the group; or Paul banging out some lead so loud that you can't hear the rest of the band. All that ego shit just ruins the singing - the entire sound. It used to be a big problem, but we're mostly out of it now. It happens, sometimes.

ANGRY: It seems like you all went through some changes since playing together. Has this effected your music?

TAXI: The changes were in our minds, first, and then in our music. What I mean is, that from being in the band, we feel together. We saw how we are all brothers. This togetherness has been reinforced by everything we have been through. Like once when the whole band went to jail for grand theft, because we bought some stolen equipment. The closeness shows in our music - like we all know what each of us is going to do when we're playing. Knowing when to cut off and such.

ANGRY: This togetherness - is this how you managed to stay intact for so long?

TAXI: Damn right! Like you have disagreements but, they're on a lower level. But we have this - - spirit, on a higher level, you know, togetherness, that never gets broken. In other words, you disagree on the lower level, but never on the higher level. It's a good thing that we've had this spirit, because it brought us through a lot of hassles. You know, we've had some bad times.

ANGRY: What about your material, you write your own?

TAXI: We write the majority of our songs and we play others.

ANGRY: Who does the writing?

TAXI: It's a community thang. We all contribute. It's like this interview, we all contribute. We each have ideas and we work them out.

ANGRY: Is there any one group you prefer?

TAXI: We all like different groups and music.

ANGRY: I mean in doing other material. Do you play a lot of one group's songs. Like some neighborhood bands do all Cream or Dead music.

TAXI: No, we never got into that, we play all kinds.

ANGRY: I noticed your equipment. It doesn't seem to be the best.

TAXI: It sure ain't the best. Most of it is homemade, like the P.A. and Paul's amp. Check out Frank's drums, they're even a mixture of different sets. Pipe built most of it and he's about the only one who knows how it works. He's always fixing something.

ANGRY: We dig self-relience. I imagine equipment is quite a problem.

TAXI: It sure is, especially if we get a gig in a big hall or play outside. We always have to go out and borrow some stuff. Even moving it is quite a problem, no one owns a car or anything. But we usually manage, we've got a lot of out-a-sight friends - you know, good people. None of us come from any rich family that could just buy some new equipment. We all came from the street, it's the only home some of us have known.

ANGRY: Your band is lumpen.

TAXI: Right On! There's one thing about our equipment - it has a certain amount of style to it. I mean, you get attached to it in a way. One thing about that equipment - it does a good job. If we sound good on it, then we'll sound even better on new equipment, that is if we get some gigs that pay some money.

ANGRY: What about gigs anyway? Do you play benefits?

TAXI: We've been playing benefits ever since we started. In fact, I guess we've played more benefits than paying gigs.

ANGRY: How did you like playing for our benefit?

TAXI: Out-a-sight! When it comes to playing benefits for revolutionary organizations, we'll play almost every time.

ANGRY: Where have you mostly played? Around PBC?

TAXI: Well, we've played mostly around the PBC but we had a few gigs around, like at a Mundeline College dance and at the William Tell Restaurant for a school prom - and a few others. You know, our name wasn't always Taxi, it was once the Underground Taxi. We just changed it recently.

ANGRY: Well, you didn't change it that much. What about practicing?

TAXI: We've always had a rough time finding a place to practice. It's a bummer because it doesn't help us at all. None of us live at home and there just isn't any place right now, but we're working on it.

ANGRY: How do you feel about your audiences?

TAXI: What we dig is audience participation. Like when you're playing and the people get involved, you catch good vibes. This is important to us because we play better when the people dig it. We're a people's band, we dig the people.

ANGRY: What does the band think about the revolution?

TAXI: The revolution is sort of new for us right now and we're trying to understand more about it. What it has done is force a lot of changes upon us, like dealing with racism and women's liberation. We dig the revolution and Angry, but most of us are going through changes.

ANGRY: Has it changed your music?

TAXI: No, not really, we've always felt that our music was revolutionary.

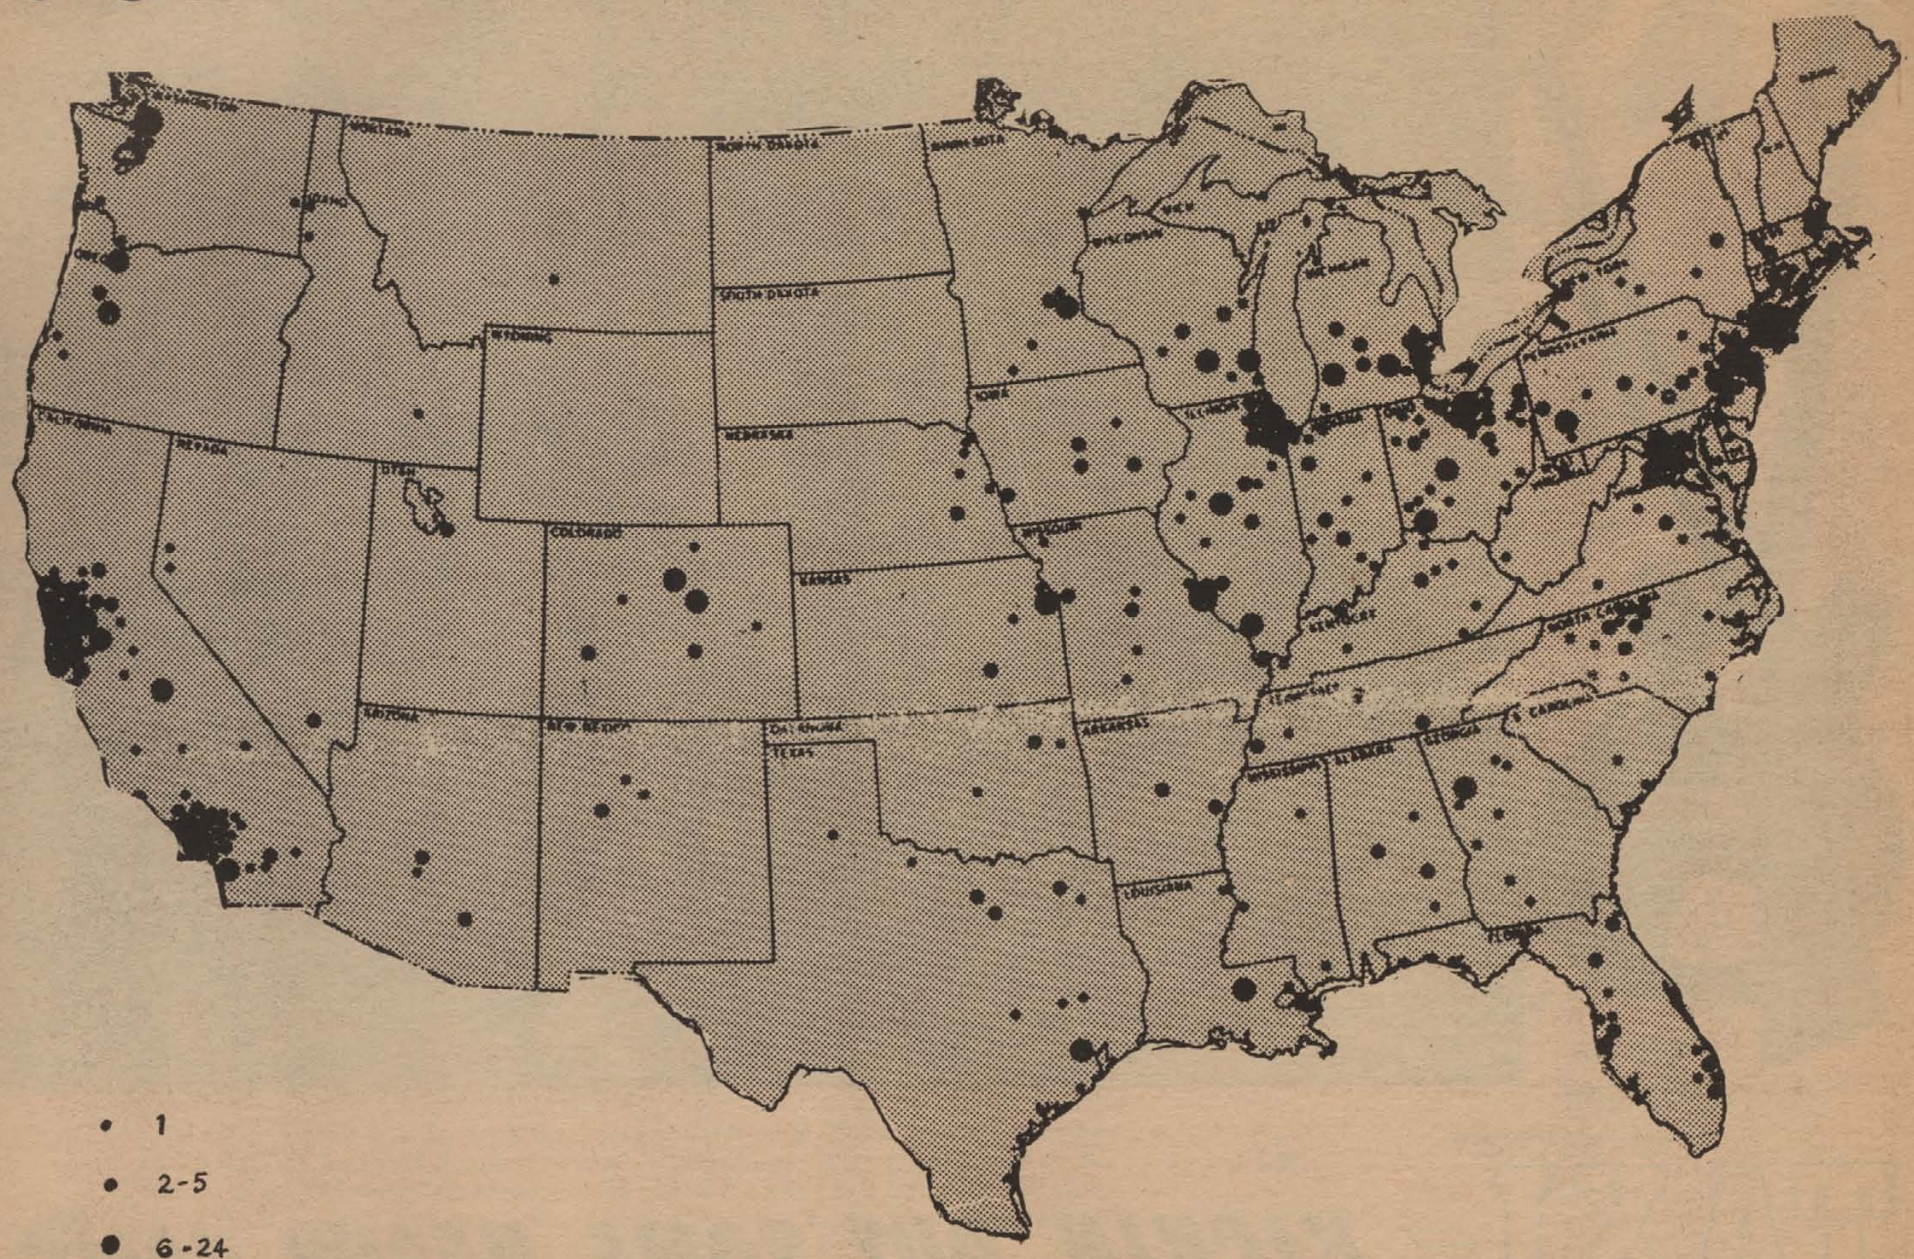
ANGRY: In what way?

TAXI: Well, it's not in the words in our songs, at least not yet, but in the music we play. When we get it on and jam, we try and get it across to the people. Make them feel good, like it was said, we dig the people. That's what I mean by revolutionary.

ANGRY: Do you want to say any last thing?

TAXI: Yeah, ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE - from TAXI and the PBC!

GUERRILLA WAR IN THE U.S.A.



The dots on this map represent acts of guerrilla warfare in the U.S.A. --1965-1970.

THE CAPITOL BUILDING IN WASHINGTON D.C. WAS BOMBED ON MARCH 1. A PHONE CALL WARNING PRECEEDED THE EXPLOSION. THE CALLER SAID THE BOMB WAS IN RETALIATION FOR NIXON'S DECISION TO INVADE LAOS.

ON MARCH 3, A COMMUNIQUE FROM THE 'WEATHER UNDERGROUND' WAS RELEASED, CLAIMING THE ACTION. THE STATEMENT SAID, IN PART:
"The Nixon regime is now attempting the brutal conquest of yet another nation in Indochina. Lies about the war 'winding down' cannot hide the criminal invasion of Laos. Nixon's speech last week cannot cover up the most vicious inhuman air war in history....The invaders of Laos will not have peace in this country. Young people here will do everything we can to harass, disrupt and destroy this murderous government. People all over the world are encouraged by what we do here in the heart of the Empire. Nixon will see that what he took for acquiescence was really the calm before the storm."

BOOM POWER TO THE WEATHERMEN!

That there is a new wave of urban guerillas carrying out acts of "armed propaganda" inside the confines of this imperialist, fascist, racist decadent community called the United States, cannot be disputed.

Whether their ideologies or motivations differ, the techniques and the ultimate goal of destruction of the system is consistent.

Guerilla war is a radically different political reality from anything the United States has experienced. It would be incorrect for it to be misunderstood either by those who would wish to crush it and thereby attempt to curb the inevitable tide of revolution, or by those who would attempt reasonably to cope with it as a passing phase.

It is not unusual, or rather, it is in the interests of the oppressor, to deny the success, much less the reality to a guerilla movement opposing it. Batista, for example, spread continual rumors that Castro was smashed to smithereens when he wasn't. Reports of Che Guevara's death in Bolivia were greatly exaggerated at least a dozen times before the CIA could deliver a corpse to match the story. Defeat of the Vietnamese has been reported daily, when in fact they have won the war. And reports of the decline of the Black Panther Party has been community news, when in fact our ranks and support is at its highest peak.

In order to keep the people in the communities of the USA in a perpetual state of confusion, emphasis is placed on the atrocities abroad and the true perpetrators of these atrocities, the US imperialists, manage to hide under the covers and demean the significance of the present occurrances.

It is now getting to the point where it will not require the services of a computer to project a full scale civil war resulting from the rapidly multiplying attacks of sabotage and guerilla tactics. During March 1970 there were 62 guerilla actions against targets in 17 states. Each target was symbolic.

The administration has found it necessary to define these freedom fighters and their actions by descriptive labels such as "disrupters," "a small minority," "destructive activists," "small bands of destructionists," "acts of viciousness," "blackmail and terror," "assaults which terrorize" any everything else except the true fact that the people are rising up in anger.

With all the resources at the hands of the FBI, the CIA and various other agencies, the revolutionary spirit of the people cannot be crushed. The Pentagon Counter Intelligence Analysis Division has a subversive data bank with 1.5 million names. The Secret Service has indices of 100,000 radical names and extensive dossiers on 50,000 revolutionaries presumed to be dangerous? this includes fingerprint files, police records, medical and psychiatric records. It also claims to have an infiltrator in a top position in every revolutionary group in America.

Yet with this colossal Intelligence network, during 1970 there were 85 attacks on government property, 28 on corporations, 62 on capitalist and lackey's homes, 192 on high schools which miseducate, 280 on colleges which brainwash, 423 on pig stations and 101 on military installations.

These sabotage acts outnumber those that occurred in Saigon for the same period.

The map above, compiled by Scanlan's, on guerilla acts of sabotage in the United States from 1965-1970 gives a very clear picture of what has been taking place.

Scanlan's was unable to bring out this particular issue of their publication in the fascist community of America due to duress by the ruling class who were afraid of the true facts being told.

LAOS

The PEOPLE Were Ready! Nixon Loses Again.

On February 4th a combined force of 50,000 South Vietnamese, Thai, and US troops, invaded Laos in one of the biggest offensives of the Indochina War. The invasion took place during a total news blackout by the US press. The press blackout was imposed by the US government and the military, so people around the world and especially here at home, could not see through their lies. The invasion was clearly an aggressive attack on the people of Laos by the US military and its South Vietnamese and Thai lackeys. The pigs tried to cover up this murderous action by saying that the invasion was to cut off the Ho Chi Minh trail and would speed up US withdrawal from Indochina. No one believes that - you can't escalate a war, attack another nation and say you are winding down the war. And then the pigs say there aren't any US troops fighting in Laos - only air support. But US newsmen have seen US troops there and the Laotians claim there are US infantry and armored units in their nation. The loss of US air craft in Laos is tremendous - 20 lost during the first five days of the invasion. So what we have is an escalation of the war by Nixon, an attack on the revolutionary people of Laos, a news blackout, and Nixon says he's de-escalating. Now, ain't no one gonna believe that pig.

Let's look a little deeper, let's try to piece together the history of Laos and try to figure out what's really happening over there. The history of Laos is like the history of Viet Nam. First the French controlled Laos and Viet Nam. Then in 1954, when the US tried to take over control of Viet Nam, they tried to take over Laos too. The US government has constantly used economic and military 'advisors' to keep a foothold in Laos. The US government helped engineer a right-wing coup, that in 1955, tried to wipe out all the patriots and revolutionaries. In response to this repression by the Laotian fascists and their US supporters, the Laos Patriotic Front (Neo Lao Hak Sat) was organized in January 1956, to fight for the independence and freedom of Laos. By 1962, the Pathet Lao (the military arm of the Lao Patriotic Front) had gained control of 2/3rds of the territory of Laos and had the support of the large majority of the people. So in 1962, the US had to agree to a 'neutral' Laos, run by a coalition government.

True to its lying piggish nature, the US (CIA) helped overthrow the neutral government and set up a phoney right-wing government. This puppet regime still exists today in Vientiane and is as phoney as the Thieu-Ky government in Viet Nam. This regime controls only ¼ of the territory of Laos and has little support from the population.

The real government of Laos is the Patriotic Front, which controls ¾ of the territory and has the support of the broad masses of the people. In the area controlled by the Pathet Lao, life goes on (although underground, because of the heavy US bombing). Hospitals and schools have been built, land is tilled, and women have become full members of society. A new socialist society is being built. Building a new society in an underdeveloped country is difficult enough, but under the conditions the Laotian people have had to endure - it's heroic.

The US has done everything it can to destroy the revolution in Laos. In November 1968, when there was a de-escalation of bombing in Viet Nam, there was a 5 fold escalation of bombing in Laos. There are 27,000 bombing missions a month. In fact, over 10 million tons of bombs have been dropped on Indochina by the US since 1965 (compare this to the 1½ million tons dropped on all of Europe in WW2). In fact, Laos has suffered the most intensive bombardment by any nation in history. This bombing has left its scars on the population of Laos. Since 1964, at least 200,000 Laotians have been killed and 700,000 to 800,000 more have been displaced by US bombing. Since the population of Laos is only 3 million, one third of the population has either been killed or displaced by US military war criminals.

But the Laotian people are brave and want their freedom - so they continue fighting to control their country. And if the US can't beat the people - they try to eliminate them. Take a look at the Plain of Jars. The Plain of Jars is the most important strategic area in Laos. It's a buffer between Laos and the liberated areas of Viet Nam. The Ho Chi Minh trail, the supply route to West Viet Nam, runs through the Plain and is a political symbol for the people of Laos. For the last 100 years, whoever controlled the Plain of Jars, controlled Laos. Well, the US and its puppet CIA led troops in Laos, couldn't defeat the Pathet Lao on the Plain. So a 'scourched earth' plan was drawn up and the Plain was saturated with bombs and with chemical defoleants. The Plain used to support 200,000 people and today has a population and production of 0. All of the plants have been killed and the people have all either been killed, mutilated or driven into refugee camps - all by US planes. But still the Pathet Lao recaptured the Plane of Jars.

So the people of Laos are used to war, used to suffering and usde to fighting for their freedom. And the Pathet Lao, like their brothers and sisters in the NLF, (in Viet Nam) have been defeating the US aggressors and building a new society - a socialist society - determined once and for all to kick the US military and business interests out of their country. The Pentagon and Nixon understand that if they want to control any part of Indochina, they have to control it all. And to control it means that the US military has to destroy all of Indochina, like they did the Plain of Jars. So - the US has invaded Laos.

There's probably lots of reasons involved in the decision to invade. Let's cut through the bullshit and see what the reasons are. The first one is to try to destroy the Pathet Lao and the Laotian revolution, because the US doesn't want the Viantiane (right-wing) government to make an agreement with the Pathet Lao which would not allow the US military in. The US war criminals have consistently destroyed any peace talks between the 2 governments of Laos.

There are other considerations that Nixon and the Pentagon must have made, too. One is that a few months after the Cambodian invasion, 2/3rds of the country was controlled by the revolutionaries. Nixon would like to make up for this loss by cutting off the Ho Chi Minh trail so the Cambodian and Vietnamese revolutionaries would be cut off from their source of supplies - North Viet Nam. There are also a couple of CIA bases in Pathet Lao territory, that the invading troops are trying to save. And since the US can't hold the Plain of Jars, they want to get the Bolobens plateau, in lower Laos, to set up military operations to attack Cambodia, South Viet Nam, and North Viet Nam.

So, while talking about de-escalation, Ky and Nixon are probably laying the ground work to invade North Viet Nam. Ky keeps talking about that and Nixons warnings and increased bombing and the US 7th fleet standing off the southern coast of North Viet Nam, suggets that a full scale US invasion of North Viet Nam may not be too far off.

The invasion of Laos shows us clearly that the war in Indochina is still there and that Nixons 'Vietnamization' has not succeeded. In order to pull off the operation, US troops who had previously been withdrawn from Viet Nam, were shipped back there. US troops were fighting in Laos, wearing South Vietnamese uniforms. US involvement in Indochina has increased! And what will be the results of these invasions?

Thousands more innocent people - dead - injured - homeless and their land destroyed. The revolution in Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, and Viet Nam will gain new recruits who will be sickened with US pigs destroying their people and countries. As a matter of fact, the Pathet Lao have become so powerful that the right-wing government has declared a state of emergency. And the Ho Chi Minh trail might alter its course, but it will still function.

You see, the only solution to the war in Indochina is for all US troops and businesses to get the fuck out! Now! And it's up to us to demonstrate, sabotage - do whatever we can to make it impossible for the pig US government to continue destroying Indochina. We've got to open up a new front - right here in Chicago. We stand with our sisters and brothers from Laos and say, 'DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIG!'....WE WILL ALL BE FREE'.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

STONE GREASE GRAPEVINE

SISTERS & BROTHERS STEP FORWARD:

The people, the true heroes, gave birth to Rising Up Angry. The people draw strength from Angry. Angry, both organization and its voice, this newspaper, belongs to the people. But, making the revolution, the bringing about of a new world for the people, means hard work and seriousness. Just digging the paper, the dances, the actions, the programs and the people is not enough. Brothers and sisters must step forward and take a more serious role.

So, we take this opportunity to thank the brothers and sisters from throughout the city and country for their actions that we report so that the revolutionary word gets spread everywhere. We thank those of you who have already contributed stories, news, ideas, photos and drawings so that we can come out with the paper each month.

And we seize this time to urge many more of you to make this people's paper grow and better serve the people. Send us news from your neighborhood - or just call the story in at 472 - 1791. Send us photographs of your people, drawings of revolutionary actions, and any other ideas. Or, come see us at 2744 N. Lincoln, we're there between 12 and 6 every day.

There are thousands among us in the neighborhoods throughout this city, that have the skills, ideas and potential to escalate the struggle and the strength of RUA a thousand times over.

SEIZE THE TIME! DO IT! IT'S A PEOPLE THING!

SHAKESPEARE PIGS UPTIGHT get itchy fingers

The Shakespeare (14th) District pigs are well known for their brutal treatment of the people. Over the past two years they have increased their already high degree of repression against the people in the hopes of keeping the people in line. But it hasn't worked. Anyone with any sense knows that repression against the people breeds resistance against the pigs and the rich capitalist chumps they serve. Such is the case in the 14th District.

Brothers and sisters who have been kicked around like dogs by maggot pigs all their lives have turned to the revolution. Whether it's the Bel Aires or Darwin City, or kids at Kelvin Park High School, the people in general have been carrying out revolutionary actions and work (selling papers, painting walls, putting up revolutionary posters, and holding revolutionary education sessions) that has freaked out, even more, the already freaked out pigs of the 14th.

The pigs busted two brothers distributing Rising Up Angry at the corner of Kedzie and Armitage. A couple of days later they shook down some brothers with Angrys over by Kelvin Park High School who were distributing papers and rapping revolution with the sisters and brothers. And on a Saturday, when people were selling papers in front of R&S Record Store at Kedzie and Armitage (a record store that used to sell Angry but was forced to remove it by pig flunky Jankowski and his even littler flunkies) a pig stopped and hassled people, but backed off when people knew more about the law than the stupid pig did. A short while later, two pigs arrived and told people to "get out of here with those damn papers." They then tried to intimidate a sister who had taken a break from selling papers and was educating some of the younger brothers and sisters on the corner about the true nature of these maggot pigs in blue. She informed them that she had a right to be there and wasn't about to leave. The pig argued with a brother who argued back. The pig said "move on" and then he and his fellow henchmen drove off.

People should know that these 14th District pigs who have been harassing the brothers and sisters who serve the people through their revolutionary work are planning to shoot the revolutionaries. Every time they stop someone they say stuff like "Where's your gun? Ain't you got it on you? Why not?" The pigs of the 14th, afraid of the truth in our paper, have already shot a lot of people in their district, and are going to shoot some brother or sister "by mistake" because of their fear and their clumsy itchy fingers. Then they'll make up a phoney story about being attacked.

Revolutionaries will defend themselves against unprovoked attacks by pigs or anyone else. The people know the truth about you pigs and they will continue to know the truth. You can't stop the people and you know it. You are hired guns for the rich, and for $12,000 a year you've sold out your people. The people will triumph. The rich oppressors and their flunkies——that's you, pigs——will loose. You can't stop history and you can't buy comfort for now even if you're smart enough to know that your side is going to loose eventually. Tides turn quick.

All Power to the People!

PIGS LIFT ROCK TO DROP ON OWN FEET

The 14th District agents of USA fascism have been up to their usual jive games with the people lately. Recently, 3 brothers and a sister were busted on a jive charge, in which the oppressive bandits of our community planted two roaches in their car and then had the gaul to charge them with possession of marijuana. The progressive brothers and sister were denied bond, and spent the night in the lockup.

This was quite an education for them, however, as they got a first-hand look at the appauling conditions of the Cook County Jail and 11th & State Women's Lockup. We take note that Lance Bell, William Redwine and Brad Greene, some of the people's most dedicated servants, are incarcerated under these wretched conditions in Cook County Jail.

In the morning, the lumpen brothers and sister from the black were released from the clutches of the fascists. Upon their return to the neighborhood, they began to educate the people about the low and illegal acts of the pigs. This should serve as a profound lesson to the few people at Fullerton and Pulaski who still think the fascist police force "serves and protects."

This arrest was purely harrassment, which is what the pigs do quite often, thinking their force and blatent disregard for our rights will scare us and keep us cool. This is the tactic of fools, however, as they are truly "lifting a rock only to drop it on one's own feet." Revolution in Our Lifetime!

AN EXAMPLE OF FASCISM

FULLERTON & SACRAMENTO

A lot of people say that they don't understand what fascism is. Well, let me rap down one thing that happened that helps to explain how fascism affects us all.

Me, my girlfriend and two other friends were driving along Fullerton going to the laundromat, when all of a sudden this pig pulls us over. So the driver gets out, shows the pigs his license and registration, and the pig sees that he's wearing a button. Now there was no reason for that pig to stop the car——no traffic violation or nothing wrong with the car. The fucking pig was just in a bad mood and was looking for something to do. So when he saw the button, he freaked and called for help and began searching the car. Naturally, he found copies of Rising Up Angry in the car. So pretty soon there were four squads and a wagon and we're all standing out there being frisked and listening to a lot of oinking.

Of course, the pigs coundn't find anything to bust us for; couldn't even give us a traffic ticket. They just kept us for 45 minutes, stole a bunch of literature, and generally oinked at us without even pretending they had a reason.

So, dig, fascism means that next time you get in your short to do your laundry, you can be pulled over, have some of your shit stolen, and be harrassed for 45 minutes, just because some pig happens to be in a bad mood. And that is against your constitutional rights, against the law, and against your human rights. But it's happening to all of us.

Death to the Fascist Pigs!

BEL - AIR BROTHER SHOT AT

Two brothers from the Bel-Airs on Kedzie and Armitage were driving around in a truck on Fullerton and Kostner. Of course, the pigs stopped them and asked the brother who was driving if he had a license and could they see it. The brother didn't have a license, and also the brake lights didn't work. So they were going to take both to jail.

Why should they take the brother who wasn't driving to jail? I don't think they should have tried to take either one to jail. So since the brother who wasn't driving knew he hadn't done anything wrong, he split. I don't blame him. The pig chased him for quite a long time. But the brother was a revolutionary (as all Bel-Airs are becoming), and in good physical condition. So, he outran, out-thought, and outmaneuvered the fascist dog.

The maggot didn't dig this at all. So when the brother was running through the field across from Kelvyn Park High School, the slimy worm took a shot at him. He missed! That was good for the brother, but it made the pig really mad ('cause only dogs get mad). So he almost caught him again and couldn't, so he shot again. The brother got away and the other brother got his ass kicked because of it.

And these dogs talk about "We Serve and Protect."

★ TO LOVE WE MUST FIGHT ★

MURDER IN UPTOWN

As we go to press, we have learned of another tragedy perpetrated against the people of Uptown by the rich businessmen chumps and the pigs and firemen who work for them.

On Tuesday, March 2nd, the large apartment building at 4502 Racine (Racine and Sunnyside) was destroyed by fire. An old woman died and another elderly person was severely burned. This is another of many fires in the Racine, Clifton, Wilson and Montrose area intentionally set by persons connected to the real estate interests (building owners). These enemies of the people, through these fires, not only get the fire insurance, but also will get the money the city is paying for the land, in order to build the new Junior College, if they succeed in driving the people out.

We charge murder against Lewis Hill and the Chicago Department of Urban Renewal that is attempting to destroy the Uptown community and bring profits to the real estate chumps.

We charge murder against the Uptown Chicago Commission (flunky's for the real estate companies, banks and the city) who have paved the way for this wipe-out of the Clifton and Racine area.

We charge murder against the firemen of the fire house at Wilson and Racine (one block from this and many other fires) who cooperated with the rich real estate interests on this, most recent, of many fires.

The only justice now is people's justice: revenge against the rich and those who serve them. The people demand revenge, and we will do it ourselves. The best self-defense is a good offense. Attack!

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

DEATH TO THE FASCISTS AND THEIR LACKEY'S

THE SITUATION IN UPTOWN

Chicago's Uptown on the north side, is one of the poorest sections of the city. Inhabited largely by poor whites, with increased numbers of blacks, latins and indians, the people of Uptown live a hard life. The fuse of resentment, hostility and anger toward the pigs is burning faster.

In Uptown, the revolution is getting stronger every day. Revolutionary ideas and actions are a response to the oppressive conditions that the people face. To be specific, in Uptown, businesses have folded and moved out; prices on food and housing, already ridiculously high, have increased. There is no work to be had. The government's phoney State Employment Agency on Montrose has got nothing. The slave markets (day labor hiring halls) are tight too; people wait starting 5:30 a.m., but many don't get sent out because of all the big factory layoffs. There aren't any jobs, and things are going to continue getting worse.

The rich chumps who run the city have slated Uptown as the spot for a new so-called 'community college'. To build it means they're wiping out the community and making fortunes off the land deals going on. Health and building inspectors are forcing people out of those buildings that will be renovated and rented to fancier people. There are mysterious fires that happen right across from the fire station.

Some of the people who claim to be helping the people, claim to be against the pigs and the demodratic machine, have proved to be tools of the pigs. They talk, but don't act, and only serve to give the people false hopes. Chuck Geary is such a person. His actions continue to cool the people's anger. At a time when more and more people realize that for 400 years elections haven't helped the ordinary people, get anywhere, this singing preacher-type (who thinks he's Abe Lincoln reincarnated) runs for alderman. Geary may have once been helping the people of Uptown, but he hasn't changed. He's still where he was at 4 years ago. The people are passing him by. In his so-called educational campaign, he used suburban kids and chump organizers from Alinsky's training school to do his work. (Alinsky teaches people to organize to keep people down). Geary attended cocktail parties to get money to put his fast-fading mug in the liberal establishments limelight. The people in Uptown learned nothing from his campaign. They just got tired of seeing this face that said vote for Geary and nothing else. He admitted he didn't have a chance, and he failed to use the money he collected to serve the people. He has always been more concerned with 'his name' and kissing liberal's asses than being with the people and doing what has to be done to help the people and make real changes. Elections ain't shit - the ballot box ain't shit - the time has come to deal with the bullet. The time has come for the brothers and sisters in Uptown to stop shooting each other and shoot some pigs, building owners and rich blood-sucking businessmen.

The pigs have been even worse than usual. A few weeks ago, they forced their way into a sick woman's apartment and started shoving and threatening her son for entertaining friends. Then the pigs and the chump landlord forced this woman to move. The pigs have also been bringing phoney glue sniffing charges and doing some beating on the brothers from the block because they ain't giving the pigs money. Even more recently, they came into a sister house as some sisters were leaving. They forced their way in without reason or search warrant. Such is their nature and that's why they will suffer the wrath of the people. The spirit of the people is stronger than the pigs and it's beginning to show. It took two squads to corner a 12 year old sister who was supposedly a 'run-away'. Extra unmarked squads and junior pigs (green uniformed 'community aides') who got together because they're more worried than ever about brothers and sisters getting it together.

We're selling Angry's (more every time these maggots bust us) and putting up revolutionary posters and taking revolutionary direction. The people ain't scared anymore, in fact the 20th district pigs (like pigs everywhere else) are scared of the people - and they've got good reason to be.

Best of all, the young sisters off the block have been picking up an moving on the revolution, knowing it's ours too. We're learning to take care of ourselves. We're hip to birth control and karate. We're getting Angry's around the community. We went to hear Huey Newton, founder and leader of the Black Panther Party, when he was in town. Now we're learning what revolution means and what we've got to do to help other sisters and brothers get strong and fight along with us.

ALL POWER TO THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS WHO FIGHT TO SERVE THE PEOPLE AND STOP THE PIG!

SERVE THE PEOPLE STOP THE PIG

UPTOWN SISTERS GET IT TOGETHER

Some sisters from Angry got together to rap with some outasight sisters from Uptown. We listened to a tape of women rapping about their experiences with marriage and the dating scene in their neighborhood and sisters getting into self-defense. Later, we talked about the problems sisters face in Uptown, getting birth control information, sisters being beaten and not being able to help each other out, and generally being fucked over by the pigs. One thing that we learned is that we all have the same problems and fears and together we can help each other grow stronger. Right on!

Any sisters who want to hear the tape can call RUA at 472-1791.

LANDLORD RUNS AMUCK

UPTOWN--RACINE & SUNNYSIDE

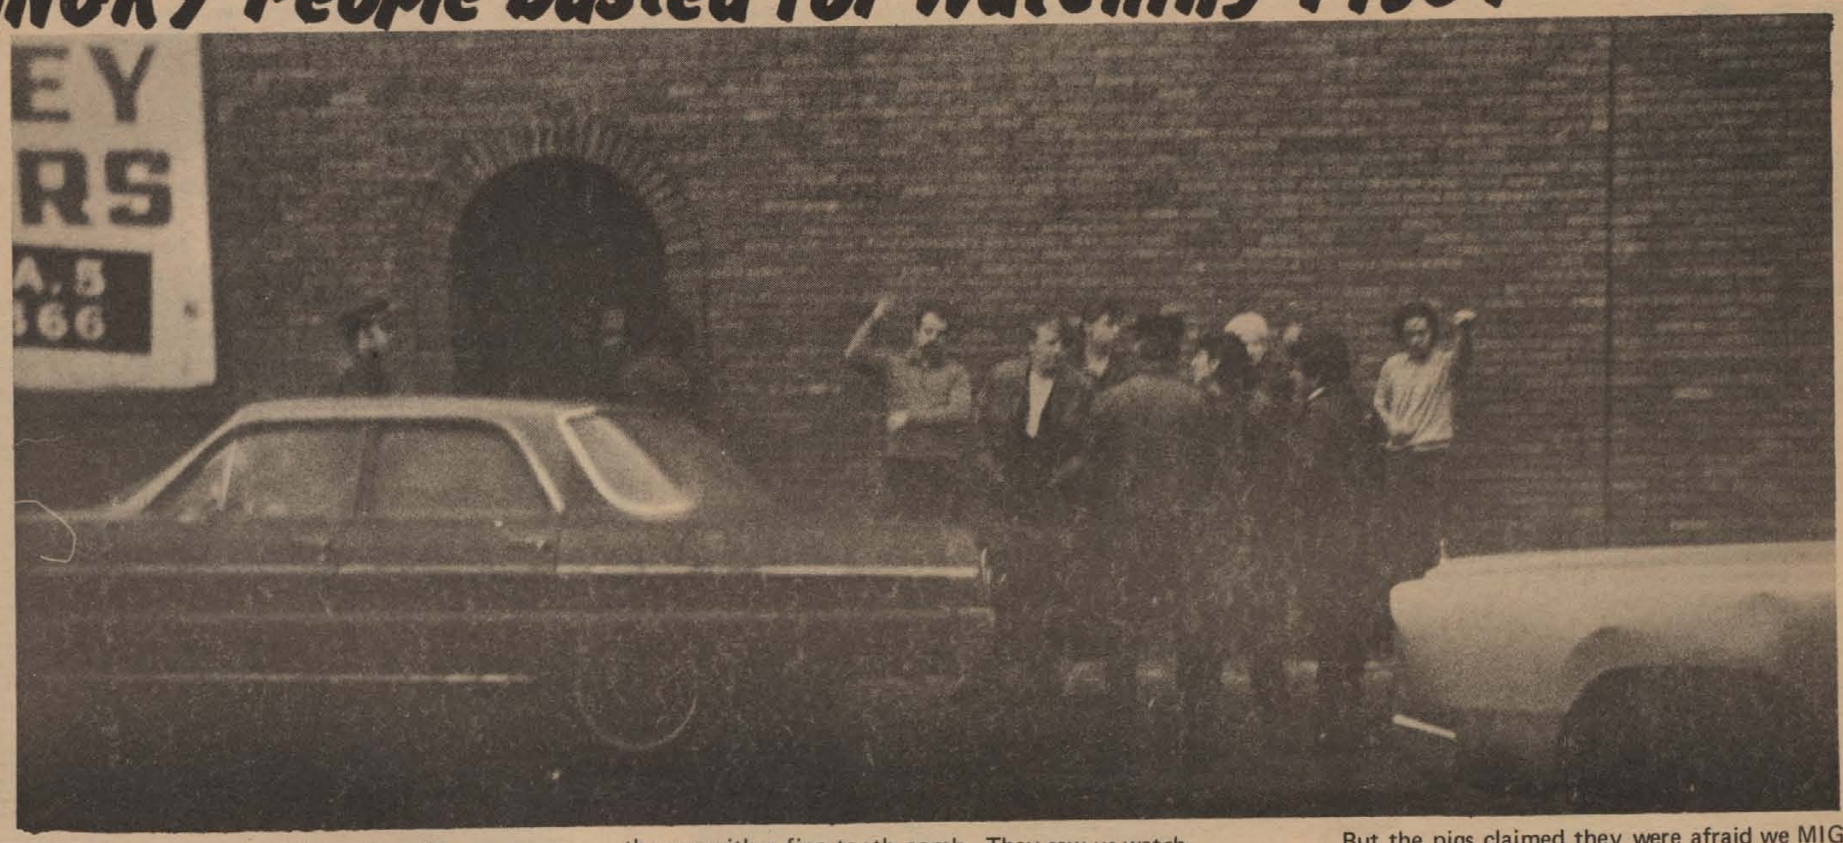
While doing work in the community, three Rising Up Angry sisters met a woman who had been brutalized by her landlord. This woman heard a knock on her door. Before she could open the door, it was busted down, and her landlord, known as Marvin "Glutten" broke in and beat her up. Then he proceeded to go into the kitchen and beat on her brother-in-law. He then called the pigs and had the brother-in-law busted. The pigs beat him up and sent him to the hospital for stiches. This Jackass Landlord didn't feel confident to meet this brother in court the next day, so instead of being charged with assault and battery, he got only disorderly (for being beat up by the pigs). These people offered no provocation, their rent was paid up, and they couldn't figure out why the pigs broke into their home.

Rising Up Angry intends to assist any people being brutalized by the pigs, landlords, or courts. If you know of any cases like these, or if you need help to defend yourself against fools like this fat greedy landlord (who drives around the neighborhood in three different cars), let Rising Up Angry know about it.

STOP THE PIG STP SERVE THE PEOPLE

THE NEW WORLD IS

ANGRY People Busted for Watching Pigs!



Pigs are getting very scared these days. They know they're doing wrong--so when the people call them on it, they get real uptight, start oinking, and try to hassel people who haven't done anything wrong.

Around Feb. 4, at 2 p.m., a bunch of Rising Up Angry people were walking up Lincoln Ave. We heard a brother was getting hassled by pigs, so we went to check it out. The pigs wanted to know who owned his '64 Chevy, and they were going through the car with a fine tooth comb. They saw us watching and told us to move. So we said, "Why?" "Because we're carrying out an investigation." So we said, "Well, we're just watching you carry out an investigation." So they put us up against the wall, and one pig (Markovich, 19th District) got scared and pulled his gun on us. We never even got a chance to swear at 'em, hit 'em, or do any kind of harm whatsoever.

But the pigs claimed they were afraid we MIGHT hurt them, so they cracked us for disorderly and let the brothers in the car go free. Not even the Fascist Pig Judge could go along with that one, since these dogs were fully armed with guns, billy clubs and mace whereas we had nothing.

Right on, you silly, stupid fools. The Power of the People is Greater Than the Man's Technology. All Power to the People!

ALL POWER TO THE BROTHERS & SISTERS who

PIGS HARRASS AND JAIL FAMILY

A couple of weeks ago about 7:30 at night, a brother named Vincent Hill, aged 17, was walking down Kingston near 79th. He went into a store to buy some potato chips and when he came out he saw one of his partners, Gawain, across the street. While he was waiting for him to come across the street, these pigs pulled up to Vincent and said he was under arrest, and so was this other dude who was just walking out of the store behind him.

Since he didn't do anything, Vincent began arguing with the pigs, asking why he was arrested, and so on. Two other brothers came down the street, and when they saw the pigs, they asked them if they had his little brother. So the pigs cracked two more brothers——for nothing.

Just at this moment, Vincent's mother, Mrs. Juanita Hill, and her 13-year-old daughter Carmelita, came driving by the scene. When she saw Vincent, she stopped and got out of the car. She told the pig she was Vincent's mother and asked what was wrong. The pig threw her up against the car.

At this point, Vincent's partner Gawain came across the street and asked Mrs. Hill what was wrong. So the pigs cracked Gawain, too. Pig Oghtree, notorious in the neighborhood for busting people for no reason, threatened to kill Gawain. Mrs. Hill told them to be cool——so the pigs let her go and took the five dudes down to 4th District Station at 89th and Exchange.

At the station, Oghtree began woofing on everyone and threatening them——like he was bad! He acted like a true pig——when he's in the station, he tries to make everyone kiss his ass. Well, none of these brothers kissed no pigs ass.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Hill had gone home to see if her husband was there. But he wasn't, so she and Carmelita came to the pig station to bail Vincent out. When she got to the station (better known as pig sty), she asked Sgt. Macey if he had her son. Then she asked where she could file a complaint against the pigs for throwing her up against the car. So Pig Frank Martin came out and said, "You want to know my name to file a complaint against me? Well, my name is Frank Martin, and you and your daughter are both under arrest for interfering with a police officer and disorderly conduct!"

Well, Pig Martin and Pig Oghtree, the people know your names and know them well. The time will come when the pigs will not be able to pull brothers off the street and then arrest their families for demanding their rights. The time is getting short for fascist pigs to run amuck on the southeast side of Chicago.

Death to the Fascist Pigs!

JOHN McENTEE JOSEPH KELLY

These two pictures are of lackeys that are paid by the ruling class to spy, arrest, jail, beat and to murder the poor people. There is no debate about it, and there isn't any doubt in the minds of the oppressed people of how to change their situation. Both of these pig lackeys were executed in the community of Philadelphia. Along with the other executions that were brought down upon the dogs, the number totals at least 13 pigs dead!! 13 less oinks to be used against us.

This is indeed a small number compared to how many are still working 24 hours a day, intimidating and patroling our neighborhood. These dirty dogs can be stopped by the method of self-defense.

All power to the people's soldiers!

SCHOOL DISTRICT 4

Dig this bullshit of a story. In School District 4 of Chicago they are sending two buses full of brothers and sisters to our school. The PTA and teachers of our school are getting a group together to try to stop the busing program to our school. The PTA said they are going to cause trouble. WELL FUCK YOU, PTA! We already have the busing program at our school, and they never caused trouble.

We already spread the word about Angry to brothers and sisters in our school and they really dig it. So far as I'm concerned, the PTA and teachers can kiss each others' ass.

HYDE PARK

The Co-op is owned by Hyde Park liberal types. The workers are fed up with pig actions of management people, particularly Norbert Lowe. The store is racist in its hiring procedures. Angry readers have read many reports of rent-a-pig Marshall Taylor beating brothers and sisters in the Co-op mall. Union Stewards have not been re-elected in 9 years. The present chief steward, Guy Davis, works with the management. He gives them lists of people to fire. They fired the sister who was going to run against him. Because of these pig actions, the workers at the Co-op are getting together to fight for their rights and needs.

Death to the Racist Liberals!

CHICAGO VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Recently at Chicago Vocational School, the students tried to have an assembly in honor of Malcolm X, who was assassinated six years ago. The stupid school administrators didn't allow the assembly, so there was a demonstration. Five people were suspended from school for participating in it.

Malcolm X stood up for and died for the people, and his spirit lives on. The students stood up against the pig administrators and their lackies, and 26 were busted. There are no laws that the people are bound to respect when the oppressor doesn't respect the people and uses his laws to brutalize them.

VALLEY FORGE MILITARY ACADEMY

Military school is the army for those under 18. The place is like a mini-Auschwitz. The minute you get there they start giving you shit about how they're going to make a MAN out of you. You stand in a line for two hours listening to the asshole rap. Then they herd you off to a big gym where they take off your clothes, issue you these silly ass uniforms, and literally shave your head bald.

For the next 3½ weeks you go through some of the worst shit you possibly ever could. They get you out of bed at 5:30 in the morning with this ear-shattering bell. Then you have exactly 3 minutes to get into your shoes, pants, robe, and be standing outside your door at perfect attention——I can't even open my eyes at 5:30. You get dressed, march over to the mess hall, and eat just what the place is called——mess. You have to eat one bite at a time and chew it 20 times while sitting at attention! For the rest of the morning, you learn to salute, march, about face, right face and how to speak militarily. They feed your body more shit, then take you to a hall and feed your mind with even worse racist, fascist bullshit.

They tell you that one of the prime things to think of is defending your country and, to rid the world of that "help each other out" bullshit, communism. After all this, you get a real treat, exercises. Some of the things they make you do would astonish Mr. Atlas. You eat once more, then are put in your room for the rest of the night to memorize prayers and cadet oaths, and they make sure you do it by making everyone say it right after you get up. If you fuck up on marching, eating, reciting, talking or anything, they grab you and kick the shit out of you.

When you've finally finished your basic training, they let you out to town for two days in a row. If you're caught with any girl or intoxicating liquor while there, you are given an empty rifle and made to march the parade field 500 times in the sun. The parade field is about a football stadium and a half long. I can't tell what happens after that, because I used my head and got out——one of the few who ever did.

All I know is this is beyond my comprehension. These fascist camps and all jails must be dealt with in a very serious way.

WELLS

A couple of brothers from Angry went up to Wells to distribute the paper and to rap to the sisters and brothers about Angry and the revolution. After rapping with some heavy sisters, we walked over to the school where we could meet some people at lunch. Well, these two pigs saw us and freaked when they saw the paper. So they pulled us down to Wood St. Station and questioned us for a couple of hours. These pigs knew that we didn't do anything wrong, so after trying to intimidate us, they cut us loose. But one dumb pig told us that even though we weren't breaking the law, if he ever saw us around Wells again he'd bust us, "even if I have to frame you." Right on, pig! You exposed your whole lying self to the people with that remark.

But the pigs can't intimidate us because there are too many of us. So two days later, Angry was at Wells again, distributing the paper and rapping with the brothers and sisters. Because we are the people and there are so many of us, the dumb ass pigs didn't even know who to look for. And we will be back at Wells and at all high schools whenever the people who go there want us to come up. And the pigs won't be able to intimidate us or stop us. Remember, you can jail a revolutionary, but you can't jail the revolution!

GORDON TECH

Sunday night, one of our brothers went to the Gordon Tech dance, fucked out of his mind. On Sundays they have sock hops, which are a rip off. You got to pay 50c to get in and without a high school ID card, it's almost impossible. If the priest doesn't like the looks of your baggies, he won't let you in unless you change them.

Sometimes, people from different gangs come together and have an out-a-sight time. All the bands are local, and once in a while you hear a good jam. A lot of people go paranoid because of all the pigs crawling around sniffing for weed.

That night, when the brother first walked in, he checked his coat and went to meet his girlfriend in the lobby. But the pig had different ideas and he grabbed the brother and started screaming at him - calling him a son-of-a-bitch. Then the pigs took him to a back room and started questioning him. After an hour of that shit, they told him he needed help. But the brother wasn't that fucked up because he knew better than to take help from a fascist pig. By then, the pigs were getting pissed off cause he kept telling them to get fucked. They took him home, complaining to his old man that he was giving them trouble all night. The brother is now outlawed from the dance forever, but next time the pigs will be outlawed.

CAIRO

Over the last 2 years, the black community of Cairo has been fired upon over 144 nights, their buildings have been burned, their people have been shot and killed and their community placed under a police seige of terror.

Thursday, January 21, 1971, at 2:00 pm, the Illinois State Police broke into 4 black homes. In this attack 4 people were badly beaten, one a pregnant woman. These unlawful and murderous attacks make it very clear why the main objectives of the black community in Cairo can be described in two words - SURVIVAL and UNITY.

The struggle in Cairo goes on, and it's important that people in Chicago back their brothers and sisters there. Over 1,000 people attended a rally on Saturday February 27th at Holy Angels church. For more information on the struggle in Cairo, contact:

ARISTOCRATS - BARRY & SEMINARY

There is still too much gang bopping in the neighborhood, but it's beginning to change because many brothers are beginning to understand that the real enemy is the pig.

The heat has been heavy. They have harassed us, beat us and intimidated us. But we have counter-attacked against the pigs. This is not the place to be specific, but specific pigs know what we mean.

What they don't seem to understand, because of their stupid nature, is that repression against the people by the pigs serving the rich, breeds resistance. We grow stronger pigs - you grow weaker.

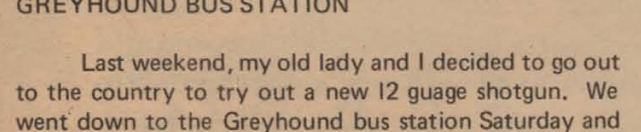
12 GAUGE PUMP ACTION SHOTGUNS



GREYHOUND BUS STATION

Last weekend, my old lady and I decided to go out to the country to try out a new 12 guage shotgun. We went down to the Greyhound bus station Saturday and bought our tickets and waited for the bus.

After we had gotten on the bus and sat down, the driver told us to get off because there was something wrong with the bus. So we got off and they drove the bus off, with our suitcase in the luggage compartment. I didn't intend to let the shotgun out of my hands, so I was carrying it (in its carton.)

We waited an hour and they came up with another bus and this chump in a coat and tie said 'this is no big thing, but we must search your bags.' So one by one, everybody went thru the gate with this rent-a-pig smiling and hustling through everybody's bags.

When it was my turn he pointed to the gun carton and oinked 'What's that?' '12 guage pump!', I said. So then he says, 'Maybe you're the guy I'm looking for.' 'Maybe', I said, and got on the bus. The chump in the coat and tie came on and said that the luggage would be on the next bus. So I went up to him and asked what the hell was going on and told him to put the luggage on this bus, that's what we paid for. He oinked, 'We have to check them with a stethoscope.'

So after we got where we were going, we went shooting and checked all the busses that came in on Saturday for our luggage and they didn't have it. Sunday we got our suitcase back - we found it on the bus we were taking back. Evidently they were looking for a bomb. Now, who would want to bomb a bus that the people are forced to ride? They better stop searching busses and start searching the greyhound executives offices - now there's a place that may go up someday!

THE CASE OF THE 'D.C. 12'

The 'D.C. 12' won their case in one of the fascist courts this week. The 'D.C. 12' are 12 people from the Gay Liberation Front who were busted during the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention in D.C. for assault with a deadly weapon, unlawful entry and destruction of property.

As you may have seen in RUA 2 months ago, four of them were barred from the Zephyr Restaurant at 4912 Wisconsin Ave., N.W., in Washington - their only crime - they are Gay. So the Gay Liberation Front retaliated and 12 got busted.

Their case recently came up in court. The defendants demanded the right to question the prospective jury as to their attitudes about gays, since if the jury was prejudiced against gays at the trial, it would not be a fair trial.

It turns out ½ the jury panel works for the US government. About two thirds work for agencies which consider gays a security risk. The government will fire anyone they consider gay. So the jury had to be prejudiced against the defendants. In fact, they were so interested in proving the defendants guilty, they even lied to their own government attorneys. And the defendants exposed the jury's fascist, sexist nature in open court by proving they had been illegally identified in the station house. Now the government must investigate their own witnesses for perjury!

The gay brothers have already been punished unjustly; some lost their jobs. If the others tell their bosses why they were really gone for three weeks, they'll lose their jobs too, just for being gay.

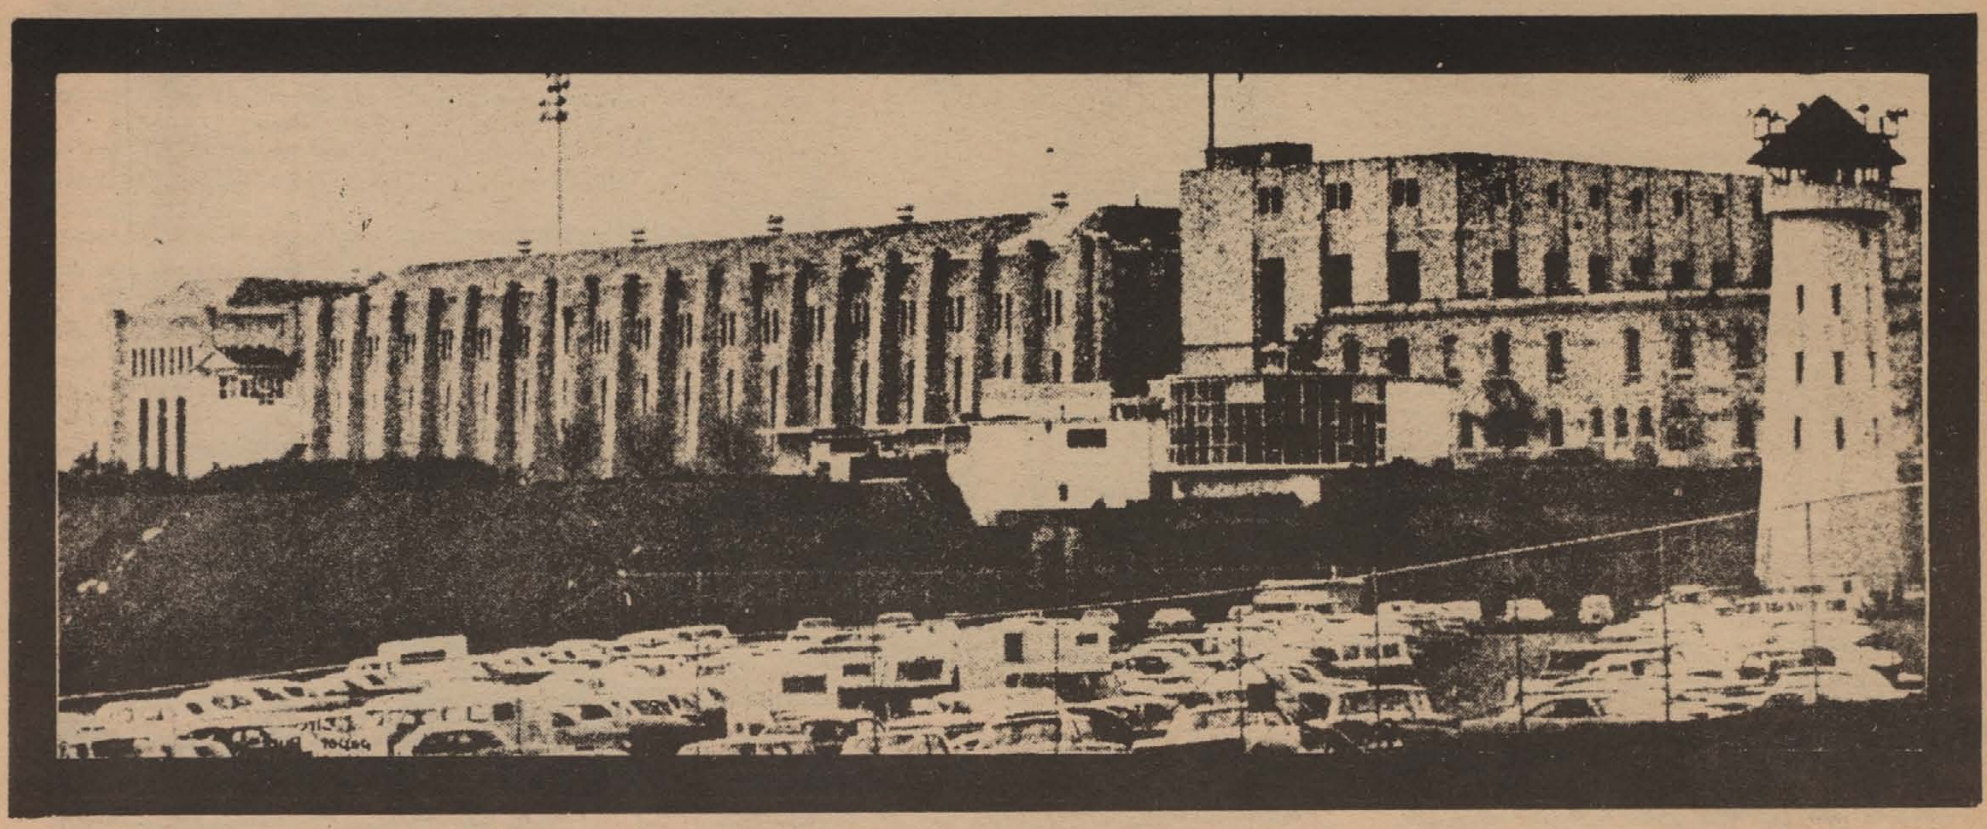
We must visit our sisters and brothers in jails. We must learn about (and make public) the things going on inside. We must stop further abuse of the inmates. We've got to communicate in order to keep our people strong and stop the pigs.



Free Bussing To Prisons & Jails

All of us know a sister or brother whose been to prison, or who is still there. Sometimes people are ashamed to acknowledge any ties with an inmate and refuse to see them because of the way society comes down on criminals. Or more likely, they feel so helpless, with their people so totally in the clutches of the fascist dog pigs. Rising Up Angry says that the inmates held in jails and prisons are there thru no fault of their own and must be set free. For the way this sick capitalist society works, many people have no other way to survive than by 'crime'. And when one stands with his people, he commits the crime of being strong. When the pigs grab our sisters and brothers there's usually no way to set them free - unless you have money or connections - and people in this country have very little of either. Even when an inmate gets out, the conditions are the same as when they went in. 50 million people are still starving and they're hungry too, and unemployment climbs every day so everyone is looking for work and it's harder for an ex-con to get hired. The minute an ex-inmate tries to straighten himself or herself out - and by this we mean to stand straight and tall - taking no shit - they're in trouble again.

So - back to the same court system or parole board that tried to make you grovel and bend the first time around.

Prisons and jails are concentration camps where many oppressed brothers and sisters live some or most of their lives. Once prisoners are in jail, they have to suffer the shit that comes down on them from all sides. The inmates suffer unknown atrocities committed against them by the pigs. Blatent murders and brutalities are everyday happenings. The prisoners are caged and cut off so well, they cannot publicize the truth. How can they have any sort of real communication when letters are 'lost' for weeks or lose their meaning after being censored. The pigs set up visiting times for people at impossible times, such as 2:30 to 4:00 on weekdays or one hour on Sundays with only one hour per month. This is bullshit - but we must visit our sisters and brothers in jails. We must learn about (and make public) the things going on inside. We must stop further abuse of the inmates. We've got to communicate in order to keep our people strong and stop the pigs.

So, Rising Up Angry has started a Free Bussing Program to provide rides for friends, relatives and loved ones of the inmates in jails and prisons throughout Illinois. The pigs try to isolate our people by keeping them far away from the reach of their families and friends. So we must visit them to help their spirit and let them know that not everyone on the outside is like the pigs they see everyday.

This program was started by the Black Panther Party because it is a practical program designed to meet the needs of the people. We know that Free Bussing is n't going to stop the inhuman conditions and treatment in prison, but we must do what we can until the people take the power. But for now, if you know someone you would like to visit, call Angry 472 - 1791 or drop in at our office at 2744 N. Lincoln. We will work out getting you to where you want to go.

RIFLES

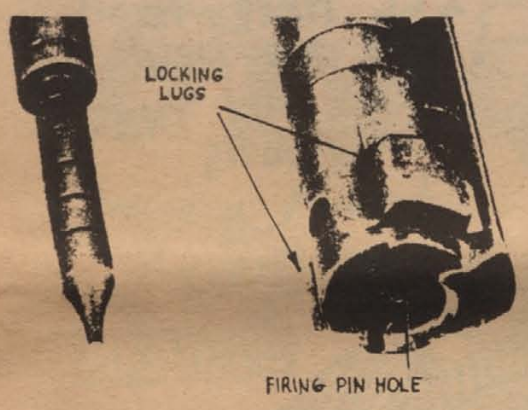
The primary use of rifles is shooting longer distances. They weigh between 7½ and 9 pounds, are long and awkward, so are not as easy to conceal as handguns. There are 2 main types of rifles - bolt action and semi-automatic.

BOLT ACTION

The bolt action rifle, such as 30-06, gets its name from the way it works. The rear part of the bore of the barrel, called the chamber, is enlarged so the cartridge just fits in. The chamber must be closed tightly at the time of firing. This is done by the bolt which has 2 locking lugs that fit into recesses in the receiver. Directly under the bolt is the magazine where the cartridges are kept. When the bolt is pulled back the fired cartridge is ejected by a little hook called the ejector and when it is pushed forward it picks up the top cartridge in the magazine and pushes it into the chamber. Then you turn the bolt ¼ turn to the right, which engages the locking lugs and locks the bolt into position. The rifle is then ready to fire. Inside the hollow bolt in the firing pin, when the trigger is squeezed, the firing pin is released; it snaps forward and strikes the cartridge primer which ignites the powder. So the whole process of firing a bolt action rifle is: 1. push the bolt forward and rotate it to the right to close it; 2. pull the trigger which fires the bullet; 3. rotate the bolt and pull it back, ejecting the used cartridge. Most bolt action rifles hold 5 or 6 cartridges in the magazine.



Front end of Mauser bolt and firing pin. Note extractor, locking lugs, and firing pin hole.

SEMI-AUTOMATIC

The other type of rifle is the semi-automatic (or fully automatic) like the AR15, M16 and other assault rifles. This type of rifle uses the pressure of the gas from the fired cartridge to operate the bolt. That way you don't have to operate the bolt by hand, making it much quicker to get off your shots. There's a small hole in the barrel of the rifle. When the bullet goes past this hole, some of the high pressure gas flows thru the hole into the cylinder just below the barrel. The pressure of the gas operates a small piston which drives the operating rod all the way back, opening the bolt, extracting the case, cocking the firing pin and compressing the return spring. The return spring then closes the bolt. So to operate the semi-automatic rifle: 1. to get the first cartridge into the chamber, pull the operating rod back by hand then pull the trigger until the magazine (which can hold up to 30 rounds) is empty.

M-1 carbine is widely used in Vietnam

KINDS OF RIFLES

The best rifle for sniping is the 30-06 or .308 (7.62 mm Nato) bolt action. Bolt action rifles are extremely accurate and are used militarily to fire one well placed shot only - not where rapid firing is necessary. Assault rifles (semi or fully auto weapons) are to be used in fire fights, shoot outs. They are also used to wipe out enemies in ambushes and counter attacks against fascist military outposts. The most common types (and recommended) are the (1) M16 or the sporting model called the AR15 or the AR180, which is available on the public market; (2) M14 caliber .308, found in National Guard armories; (3) M1 Garand 30-06. There is also the m1 .30 caliber carbine, which is probably the most popular semi-automatic. It's not as powerful as the others, but is good for learning to shoot with and for self-defense at close quarters.

HOW TO SHOOT A RIFLE

The principles of sighting and aiming a rifle are the same as for a pistol. To aim the rifle, put your cheek against the stock, have the top of the front sight even with the top notch in the rear sight or centered in the opening of the peep sight. The top of the front sight is at the bottom of the bulls eye of the target. You should keep the front sight in focus; the rear sight and target might be blurred, depending on the distance and your eyes.

The target will weave - this is normal. You should try to make the gun go off just as the sights are lined up perfectly. When the sights are lined up, begin applying steady pressure to the trigger, if it weaves out of alignment, don't apply any more pressure. Then as the sight weaves back on target, continue to apply pressure. If you have co-ordinated everything, the rifle will fire just as the front sight pauses at the critical point. If you're doing it correctly you won't know exactly when the rifle will fire.

Remember: don't jerk or quickly pull the trigger back - apply steady pressure directly backward. The rifle will also jump a little as part of the recoil, so be expecting this and don't flinch. Flinching in anticipation of the explosion and kick is one of the biggest mistakes you can make. To check if you are flinching, have someone load your magazine with a dummy cartridge or 2. If you're flinching, you'll notice it when you pull the trigger, there is no explosion, but the gun jumps.

Hold the rifle the same way every time. Get a fairly firm grip on the forearm and on the pistol grip with the 3 lower fingers. Put the rifle butt well into your shoulder and your cheek firmly on the stock so your eye is comfortably centered on the sights. Now you're ready to shoot!

SELF-DEFENSE

SHOOTING THE RIFLE

Prone stance.

SHOOTING POSITIONS

You can shoot a rifle standing up, sitting down, lying down, leaning the rifle on a natural rest, etc. The most accurate shooting is done with some kind of rest - window sill or branch, etc. Don't rest the forearm of the rifle directly on something hard - put something soft, like a jacket, under it. The most difficult position for accurate shooting is standing.

SHOOTING STANCES

The prone position is the steadiest, and for most shooters, the easiest one. A sling may be used. Lie on your stomach at about a 45-degree angle from your line of sight, with your feet comfortably spread apart. As you raise your rifle, it should point naturally at the target. If you must crane or shift your shoulders to align the sights on the bulls eye, your position is wrong. Shift your body one way or the other, until the gun easily at the target. Your two elbows and chest should form a tripod, with your elbows firmly but comfortably apart. As in most positions (there are certain exceptions) the forearm should rest in the palm of your hand. Don't hold the gun up by your fingertips.

The sitting position calls for more shooting skill if you're seeking consistent bull's eyes, since, naturally, it isn't as steady as the prone. Sit facing the target at about the same angle used in the prone stance, feet well apart. Let your feet extend themselves naturally so that there is no strain or tension in the arch. Don't place your elbows directly on your knees, as many are prone to do, since this is not only difficult but will cause excessive body wobble. Instead, allow your elbows to slide down along the inside of your knees and arch your back forward until your shooting eye is in line with the sights. No two shooters hold this stance exactly the same since no two persons have exactly the same build or body flexibility. Vary it slightly to fit your physique. If any part of the body feels strained uncomfortably, relax the stance slightly.

"SPOT WELD" NOT NECESSARY BUT IS DESIRABLE IF FIRER CAN GET IT
FIRM GRIP ON SMALL OF STOCK WITH DAYLIGHT BETWEEN TRIGGER FINGER AND STOCK

Offhand stance. The right elbow really doesn't have to be as high up as the picture shows.

The offhand or standing position calls for the body to be poised at almost right angles from the target, facing 3 o'clock. Hold the forearm at comfortable length and the right arm away from the body, the latter nearly horizontal with the right elbow pointed directly away from the body. The feet should be spread, the distance depending on the length of your legs and the comfort you attain. In this position, you will be most conscious of the weight of your rifle and you may correctly tend to lean backwards from the waist slightly to compensate for this. As in all positions, the cheek should be set firmly against the comb or stock and no part of the body should be so rigid that tensions and tremors set up. Relax as much as you can while staying in this position.; Offhand shooting is the most difficult, and don't be surprised if you shoot poorly in the first attempts.

Expert riflemen, even though trained in all the stances, will always use a natural rest if it is available. Marine snipers in Vietnam are taught to do ALL their shooting in this way, with the forearm of the rifle sitting on a natural rest. A rest can be used in prone, kneeling and standing positions.

On many rifle ranges, shooting from a bench is the only stance allowed. The range furnishes small sandbags, which are set on the bench, and the forearm is placed on them. This is called 'bench rest shooting,'and allows for great accuracy. Sighting in of rifles should be done from the benchrest position. In open country, you can get practice using many types of natural rests, such as rocks, logs, fence rails, etc.

Sighting, trigger pull, and shooting stances should all be practiced extensively without ammunition inside a room before going out to the range. This is called 'dry firing' and is very important in learning good marksmanship. In fact, expert marksmen spend some time every day doing dry firing practice. Pennies scotch taped to the wall, make good targets for dry firing. You should take dry firing very seriously, concentrating on all of the elements of proper form, etc., as if you were really shooting. If you do this, you will have some confidence and ability on your first trip to the range.

Another thing to practice during dry firing, is fast successive shots, which depends on realigning the sights on the target after each shot. One good way of simulating recoil and the need to realign sights when dry firing a semi-automatic rifle is to have someone stand beside you and slam back the bolt handle immediately after you pull the trigger. This feels very much like recoil and can even cause flinching.

For a beginner, it is a good idea to start out shooting a .22 rifle if you can get one. For one thing, ammunition is very cheap, and since there is almost no recoil flinching is not likely to be a problem. At some point though, you will have to move up to the 'real thing, and the heavy recoil of high power rifles may cause flinching, which will have to be overcome.

CLEANING THE RIFLE

Clean your rifle at least every time you use it. First, open the bolt or take it off, if it's removable. If the gun is real dirty, run the brass brush, with gun solvent on it, through the barrel, otherwise run a couple of patches dipped in solvent, through the barrel. Then run 4 or 5 dry patches down the bore. These patches soak up the solvent and dissolved residue. Keep running these patches through until it comes out clean. Finally run an oil soaked patch down the bore, leaving a light coat of oil on the inside of the bore. Use the solvent soaked patch to wipe off any other powder residue, such as on the face of the bolt. With the oil soaked patch leave a light coating of oil on all the exposed metal parts of the gun and on the moving parts, such as the bolt. For more detailed information on how to take apart and clean your weapon, consult a manual.

To clean the outside of your rifle, wipe it off with an oily rag or a silicone cloth, because fingerprints can cause rusting.

Marine snipers are taught to shoot from any position where the rifle can be securely supported. No sling is used and no support is given to the fore-end. The prone position shown here is not unlike the conventional benchrest technique familiar to sportsmen.

STREET MEDICINE

We are beginning a series in Rising Up Angry on Medical Emergencies. You might want to cut them out and keep them, because the information will be more and more important for you to know all the time. This month will be on the Vital Signs of an injured person, Stopping bleeding, shock and mace and tear gas.

When a person has to deal with an emergency situation, he or she should follow certain steps to make sure that he/she has checked the situation out completely, and figure out, if more than one person is injured, which to try to treat first.

1. Is the person alive?
2. Is the person breathing?
3. Is the persons heart beating?
4. Is the person bleeding?
5. Is the person in shock?
6. Is there severe damage of any kind - such as broken bones, nerve or spine injury, chest or head injury?
7. Is the person developing an infection?

You should deal with each of these in this order.

BREATHING AND PULSE - First have the person sit or lay down. Look at them. Check out their breathing. Is the chest wall moving in and out? Feel air going in and out of mouth by putting your cheek next to the persons mouth. Count how many times they breathe per min. (average is 70 - 90 per min.)

If airway is blocked, clear it by turning the persons head to one side and hyperextending his/her neck. If breathing has stopped, and you do not know artificial respiration, call for medical help immediately.

BLEEDING - Bleeding must be stopped immediately. Loosing a small amount of blood will cause weakness, but loosing a large amount, can cause shock, the loss of parts of the body, or even death. (For a child, 1 or 2 pints of blood lost is serious. For an adult, 2 quarts lost is serious.)

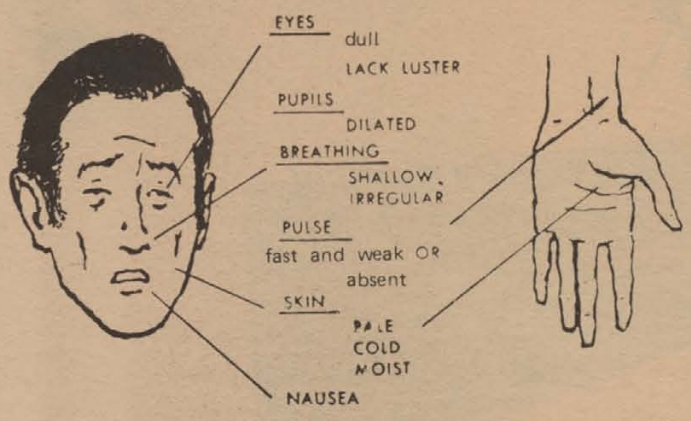
Follow these instructions in stopping bleeding:

1. Apply direct pressure on the wound using the cleanest possible dressing (sterile gauze, clean handkerchiefs, sanitary napkins, strips of sheets, clean underwear, etc.)
2. Apply even, firm pressure - if the wound is very serious and a dressing has to be sent for, use your hand to stop the blood until something better comes. Pressure should bring the edges of the wound together, squeeze blood vessels (to help form a clot), and prevent the patient from losing any more blood.
3. If blood soaks through the dressing, DO NOT REMOVE IT, but add more layers to absorb the blood.
4. Bandage firmly, but allow for swelling (do not cut off the circulation.)
5. If bleeding does not stop after about 20-25 minutes, stitches are probably needed, or other medical care.
6. Elevate the injured area and treat patients for shock, if they have lost a lot of blood and they look shaky. Even though this patient may not be in shock, he/she may go into shock later, and you may be able to prevent it.

TOURNIQUET - Never use a tourniquet unless it is impossible to stop profuse bleeding by any other means. Usually this means, if a limb is partially or completely cut off. Never use a tourniquet, unless the patient's life is in danger. The tourniquet is likely to kill the limb it is used on.

SHOCK - Shock is a condition that happens when a person is not getting enough blood (oxygen) to the brain. Shock is caused by loss of blood, serious injuries (such as burns or broken bones), serious diseases or infections, or by emotional strain. The body draws the blood to the center of the body, in order to save the vital organs. The heart beats faster to get the blood around, but the pulse is very weak. Since the body's balance is upsêt, a person can faint from shock. The arms and legs get cold and clammy, and the person may be nauseous.

Shock can cause death if not taken care of promptly, even though the injury that caused shock may not be that serious. All seriously injured people should be treated for shock, even if they don't have all the symptoms and look normal. The treatment may prevent a person going into shock.



WHAT TO DO ABOUT SHOCK

1. Keep the person lying down.
2. Raise feet and legs 12 inches or more if there is no chest or head injury.
3. Raise the head and shoulders slightly if there is chest or head injury, or if the person has trouble breathing.
4. Keep the person from chilling - but do not allow the person to become hot and prespire.
5. Try to give fluids by mouth if person is conscious.

(Use solution of one teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon baking soda to 1 quart of water) Give ½ glassful every 15 minutes. If person vomits, stop liquids for a while. But never give fluids to an unconscious person.

6. Never give alchohol to a person in shock.
7. If the person is unconscious, turn them over to their side, check their vital signs, figure out why they are unconscious. If they simply fainted, you can probably wake them up. But if they are unconscious because of a serious injury, you must get them to a doctor or hospital immediately.

TEAR GAS - Tear gas irritates the nose, eyes, lungs, bronchial tubes and skin. It causes the eyes to tear a lot, and it may cause a person to be stunned for a while. One protection is to hold a wet handkerchief over the mouth, but this will only help a little bit.

WHAT TO DO

1. Take the victim away from the scene of the action and allow the person to rest and breathe fresh air. Keep hands out of eyes.
2. The eyes, nose and skin should be rinsed with clear water (or normal saline) for 15 minutes to ½ hour. Rub Calamine Lotion on the skin if irritated - after gas is off.
3. Remove clothes if possible, at least the outer clothes, because they carry the gas and this will continue to irritate.

MACE - Mace is more dangerous to the nose, eyes, respiratory tree, and skin. It can cause temporary blindness if the person gets a whole lot in his/her eyes.

TO TREAT MACE

1. Wash immediately all parts touched by the mace, especially the eyes - rinse thoroughly and continue rinsing for as long as possible (about ½ hour). Mace can cause severe damage and infection can develop. Watch for infection and if it develops, be sure to get it treated by a doctor. (If there is only a little water, rinse the eyes first and leave the skin alone.)

SUMMARY

Check breathing first. Then, if it is clear that the person is bleeding, take care of that next. Then check the other points - shock, serious injury and infection and deal with each one in turn. Try to get help from other people around who you can trust, or others not too seriously injured to help out.

BUST INFO:

A PIG IS A PIG If you are stopped by the pigs you don't have to answer any questions except your name and address. (It's not a bad idea to have a cover address of a straight person who will verify that you live there.)

But remember--refusing to answer a pig's questions will probably make him mad enough to arrest you on a city disorderly charge or some other nonsense.

IDENTIFY THE ENEMY If the person who stops you is in plain clothes ask him to show his identification. Remember his name and badge number so you can give it to your lawyer.

STOP AND FRISK A pig can stop and frisk you if he thinks you have a weapon or if you are doing something "suspicious." If you are carrying a gun he's going to tell the judge that he saw the bulge. If you are holding dope don't throw it away if the pig can see you. Eating it is the best idea.

HOUSE SEARCH Supposedly pigs can not search your house unless they have a warrant or unless they are in "hot pursuit" of a criminal. If the pigs come to your house, ask if they have a warrant. If they don't you don't have to let them in. If they say they have a warrant tell them to slip it under the door or somehow to get it to you without your opening the door. If you have dope don't let them see where you get rid of it.

CAR SEARCH If a pig stops you while you are driving get out of the car right away with your license and registration. This way he cannot say that when he stepped up to the car the dope or weapons was in 'plain view'. If they don't have a warrant, you should state (in front of a witness, if possible) that you do not want them to search the car. This may get the case thrown out if you go to court.

PHONE CALLS After you are arrested and booked you have the right to make phone calls. If you don't tell them your name and address and let them fingerprint you the booking process is not complete and you will not be able to make your phone calls. You should be entitled to make enough calls to get a lawyer and to get bail money. If you can't get in touch with a lawyer directly, call someone who can call a lawyer for you.

DO NOT MAKE ANY STATEMENTS OR SIGN ANY STATEMENTS ABOUT THE CRIME. IF THE PIGS START QUESTIONING YOU TELL THEM YOU WANT YOUR LAWYER.

BAIL If you are arrested on a city offense the bail is normally set at the pig station at $25. If you are arrested on a state misdemeanor charge which is punishable by only a fine the bail is $50. On misdemeanors where you can get prison time the bail is $1000 which means that you have to put up $100.

On some misdemeanors and all felonies the pigs will not set bail. A judge will set the bail and in order to be released you have to post 10% of the amount.

CHARGES The first thing that the arresting officer must do is charge you. There are 3 kinds of charges.
1) Felony - generally a violation of a state law. Punishable by a fine and/or prison for at least I year.
2) Misdemeanor - violation of a state law. Punishable by a fine only or prison up to I year.
3) Municipal Ordinance - violation of a city law. Punishable by fines only - no jail sentence.

COURT If you are in custody when you are brought before a judge ask him to set a recognizance bond, which means that you won't have to put up any money. This will depend on the crime you're charged with, whether you've ever been arrested before and how long you've lived in Chicago.

You have the right to a continuance on your first time up in order to get a lawyer. Anytime the judge is going to force you to trial and you don't want to go, ask for a jury trial. They will have to transfer your case to another court.

LEGAL AID

Don't trust the Public Defender. He doesn't have time to prepare your case. Always have your own lawyer. If you don't have money for a lawyer contact Rising Up Angry. Come up to the office at 2744 N. Lincoln on Wednesday nights between 7 and 9 or call us any time and we will give you free legal advice, help you with your case, or refer you to a people's lawyer for little or no cost. UNDER 18 AND BUSTED

Being a kid (the pigs and judges call you a "juvenile") in America is tough. In the eyes of the law, any man under 17 and any woman under 18 has hardly any rights. If you can't (or don't want) to make it with your parents, you get stuck in some instituion that's more like a jail than anybody's home (no matter how bad) could be. So juveniles are like prisoners no matter who's in charge. This article tells a few good things to know about juvenile laws so that you can stay as cool as you can and still rip off America the monster.

Juveniles (men under 17 and women under 18) are never really arrested--they're just taken into custody. Twenty four hours after being taken into custody, a juvenile must be turned over to a youth officer. Parents must be notified within 48 hours.

Sometimes the pigs will just take you down to the local pig pen and write up a card and then release you to your parents. If you play it cool and weren't picked up for anything heavy, they may do this. It's a hassle for them to get you down to the Audy home (jail) and since you aren't really arrested, the pigs get no citations for it like they do on 'adult' cases.

But if the pigs aren't into letting you go they will call a youth officer to write up a 'petition' on your case. Then you, the petition and the youth officer will be driven to Audy intake. Here you may have another chance to be released into someone's custody. The Audy intake officer (especially the night duty ones) can sometimes be convinced that it would be much better for you to go home with some "responsible adult" than to spend the night in the over crowded Audy intake.

If none of this works, the next day you will go before a judge for a custody hearing--to determine whether or not you should be kept in Audy home until your ajudicatory hearing, which is like a "trial" or a "finding of facts." This should happen within 10 days after your custody hearing, especially if you are to be kept in Audy home.

You have a right to be represented by a lawyer, even if your parents don't agree to it. You also have a right to make a phone call to a lawyer or a friend who will contact one for you. (This phone call should be asked for at the police station; if it isn't granted, ask for it again at Audy intake.) These are about all the rights you have as a juvenile, so take advantage of them!

At your adjudicatory of so-called fact finding hearing, it will be decided whether or not you are 'delinquent' (that is, a juvenile who has committed an adult crime) or 'a minor in need of supervision.' If the judge finds there is no reason to hold you he will let you go with your parents or a so-called 'responsible adult.' If you are found to be a delinquent in need of supervision, or neglected, you may or may not be released to the custody of your parents or a responsible adult until your next hearing.

The next hearing is called disposition (like sentencing.) It should be held--at the most--30 days after the adjudicatory hearing. If you have to remain in the Audy home make sure that your lawyer, or the so-called public defender follows through on making sure that you get this hearing. At the disposition hearing different things can happen. You can be let go to your parents or "responsible adult." The court might decide that you must be taken out of your home and they will appoint a guardian. Or they can have you committed to the Illinois Youth Commission, which will assign you to one of the juvenile penal institutions after processing and 'testing' in Joliet. At one of these juvenile institutions--Sheridan, a camp, etc--you can be held until you are 21--even though you are no longer a juvenile. You have a right, however, to go into court and have a hearing on the disposition at any time.

LEGAL

Rising Up Angry has a legal defense program. The purpose is to keep brothers and sisters out of jail, off probation, and get them paroled sooner. If you or your friends get busted or need any legal help, call or come down to the Angry office on Wednesday nights from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Adress—2744 N. Lincoln.
Phone—472-1791.

SISTERS

We have all sorts of questions and problems concerning our health, birth control, pregnancies and legal hassles. In order to avoid the run-around most doctor$ and lawyer$ give us, we don't even try to deal with them. Sisters and brothers in Rising Up Angry understand this and have real help to offer:

1. Health Care—we have doctors who will help you with any problem.
2. Birth Control Counseling.
3. Legal Aid
4. Bail Fund— for sisters throughout the city.
5. Abortion counseling— 643-3844

MILITARY & DRAFT

The Rising Up Angry military and draft program, in keeping with our policy of serving the people, designed to help the brothers beat the draft. It also concerns itself with helping any of the brothers and sisters already in the military, who want to get out or get justice, or get revolutionary things going inside. Angry has access to draft counselors, lawyers, etc. So if you're worried about the draft, about the service, and want ideas how to deal with both, call us. The earlier the better, so that a time can be set up to deal with your problems and concerns as soon as possible.

MOVIES

Rising Up Angry has many revolutionary films available for use in neighborhoods, schools, homes, etc. They include films on the Black Panther Party, an interview with Chairman Bobby Seale, The Army, High School Rebellion, Cuba, Vietnem, Guerrilla Warfare in America, and many more. It you are interested in using any of these films for revolutionary education, contact the officer of the day at the Rising Up Angry office. 4721791

RAP SESSIONS

Rising Up Angry member will come to your neighborhood or school and rap about:

1. What Rising Up Angry is and what we believe.
2. What you and your friends and family can do to help make the revolution.
3. Let you know about revolutionary activity going on around the city, throughout the country and the world.
4. We have movies, records and literature that we can bring with us.

These rap sessions should have at least 4 people from your neighborhood, factory, office or school. Get your people together. Call us and let us know when. We're available 7 days a week and can go most anywhere. Together we will arrange a time and place convenient for you and your people. These sessions can be held on a corner, in a church, a basement, park, bar, etc. If you are in school and can encourage your teacher to have us come into your class, do it. Power to the sisters and brothers who help spread the revolutionary word.

PRISONS & JAILS

Rising Up Angry is cooperating with the Black Panther Party in providing free transportation for all parents, relatives and friends to visit their loved ones held captive in prisons, jails, reformatories, "homes" throughout the State of Illinois.

We want people to observe the notorious conditions at these institutions, to see the prisons in operation, and to go to various prison officials and let them know that the people are watching, that things have changed. The actions of these correction officials will no longer be hidden in the darkness or unawareness, but will be exposed in the light of political consciousness by the people

Contact Rising Up Angry if you want to visit someone, or if you want to help let others know about this program. Rides can be arranged to St. Charles, Sheridan, Vandalia, Menard, Joliet, Pontiac, and house and other places. You should handle visiting arrangements in advance, or call if you need help or information in arranging them. All Power to the People! Open the Jails! Long Live the Spirit of Jonathan Jackson!

CHILDREN

SERVE THE CHILDREN PROGRAM - RISING UP ANGRY has started a new program. We understand that youth is the future - the future of a better world. But this society does not provide for its youth. Diapers, cribs, blankets, clothing, toys, etc. are ridiculously expensive. Sometimes beyond peoples means. So RUA is going to supply these things free. If you can help - if you have any of these things (in good shape) - call Angry at 472 - 1791.
